MIDNIGHT.

THE CAPITAL.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, August 5, 1869.

WEST POINT.

The report of the Board of Visitors to West Point highly commends the discipline there. The arrangement of students is excellent, but a deficiency in correctness of utterance was noticed, and more attention to composition is recommended. They also recommend more attention to studies in our own language and less attention to French and other foreign languages. Lectures of physical geography, hygeine and history are recommended. Competitive examinations for admission are recommended. The grounds need drainage. The fiscal affairs are favorable.

THE CUBAN REVOLUTION.

Advices from Cuba to their friends in this city to the 26th ult., state that Gen. Quesada still has control of communication between the coast and Puerto Principe, and that the inhabitants of that city are completely at the mercy of the volunteer soldiery, who are committing every description of outrage in the city and country adjacent. It is now almost impossible to obtain supplies, and the suffering of the people is represented to be very great.

Fighting is reported at several points in General Jordan's department, where the Spanish troops have been reinforced by two regiments of volunteers and a battalion of regulars from Havana. Near Santiago De Cuba the Cubans were attacked by a superior force of Spaniards and at first were driven from their position, with some loss, but they were rallied and reinforced by troops from General Figuro's command, regained their position and compelled the Spanish troops to retire.

It is reported a small foreign party of Cubans were captured near Remedios, and another near Sagua La Grande. The number of Cubans captured was eighty, and it is feared they were immediately executed.

Cuban troops, it is reported, continue to be free from disease and in excellent spirits. The commanders are moving to take advantage of the present demoralized condition of the Spanish forces.

The letters containing the above information state that in twenty days decisive action will be taken in the Eastern Department, which will give the Cubans control of the affairs of that portion of the Island.

ANNEXATION OF SAN DOMINGO.

A dispatch from Long Branch says: Secretary Robeson admits that Senator Cole has gone to San Domingo on a special mission. The Secretary declares that inside of one year San Domingo will be admitted to the Union. The Secretary received a dispatch from Ernest Laroche, the Haytien Charge D'Affairs, asking an interview to-night or to-morrow. Laroche has had a long interview with Secretary Fish, and Fish has given him a letter to present to Robeson. The business is important and may have some decission bearing upon the annexation project. Robeson will meet Laroch in the morning.

SPECIMEN OF MARBLE.

A beautiful specimen of marble, much superior to Italian, has been received at the Land Office from a new quarry discovered recently on the Fort Leavenworth reservation.

CHICAGO.

Death from Excitement—The Steamboat Rioters—Burglar Shot—The Whitehouse-Cheney Case—Excursionists Round the World.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, August 5.—A man named Knott, one of the men who took an active part in the lynching of Berry, at Pekin, Illinois, on Saturday night last, died yesterday from excessive excitement occasioned by that affair.

Ten of the steamer Dubuque rioters have been held on a charge of murder. Three others were held for a further hearing. The examination closed to-day at noon.

A Chicago burglar, named C. R. Johnson, was shot by Dr. Kanley at Lockport, Ills., on the night of the 3d inst., while he was attempting to break into the Doctor's store. Johnson ran some distance after being shot, but finally fell and expired in a few minutes. The ball passed through his lungs.

The Ecclesiastical Court met to-day. A long protest against the action of Judge Jameson was presented and read, and the Court then adjourned until September. Rev. Mr. Cheney left the city yesterday for the South, to be absent several months with his wife, whose health, owing to the recent excitement attending the trial of her husband, has become quite infirm.

Rev. Dr. E. D. G. Prime, editor of the New York Observer, with a party of eight, including three ladies, on a trip round the world, reached this city last evening and left this morning via Pacific Railroad for San Francisco. They will exhaust about one year in the voyage.

American Dental Association.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SARATOGA, August 5.—The American Dental Association consumed most of the morning session in the discussion of operative dentistry. Many members took part. Dr. C. Palmer Warren, of Ohio, illustrated his remarks by diagrams of various shaped cavities, giving ideas of cutting away and shaping them.

Three ballots were had on the selection of a place for the next meeting, and Nashville, Tenn., was finally decided upon. The vote was Nashville 59, Newport 17, and St. Louis 9.

In the evening session the report of the Committee to revise the Constitution was laid on the table. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Homer Judd, of Nashville, President; S. J. Cobb, of Nashville, 1st Vice President, C. E. Francis, of New York, 2d Vice President; J. A. Salmon, of Boston, Corresponding Secretary; M. S. Dean, of Chicago, Recording Secretary; W. H. Goddard, of Louisville, Treasurer.

NEW YORK CITY.

Will of Jacob Cram—The Gunboat Seizures—More Arrests for Renewing Revenue Stamps—The Tailors' Strike—Duties on Coal—Trial of Paymaster Bogart—Defrauding the Revenue.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 5, 1869.

The will of the late Jacob Cram has been admitted to probate in the Surrogate Court. Mr. Cram left an estate worth nearly a million, mostly in real estate in this city and Chicago. The widow being dead, the entire estate is left to the four children of the deceased, two sons and two daughters, in equal parts. The original will placed the share of each of the children, with the exception of Henry A. Cram, in trust for their use, but in the codicils they are all taken out of trust and bequeathed without condition, except the share of the daughter, Laura Virginia, wife of Gen. James Watson Webb. In her case the executors are directed to hold shares in trust for her use during the life of her husband. In case she survives her husband she is to come in absolute possession of her share, otherwise it is to go to her next of kin, or if she leaves children, to them in trust. The executors are Frederick G. Thurston, Henry K. Bull and Henry A. Cram.

No further action is to be taken by the United States Marshal relative to the seizure of the Spanish gunboats.

Three more arrests were made to-day of persons concerned in frauds on the revenue by the revamping of cancelled stamps. One of the parties arrested yesterday contrived to get information to a confederate, who burned several thousand dollars' worth of the cleaned stamps, which were ready for disposal. It is stated that more than fifty thousand dollars in cancelled stamps, which had been resold, have been traced, and a large part of them are now in the possession of the police. Several more arrests are expected to-night, including several porters and clerks in banking houses and brokers' offices in Broad and Wall streets.

The tailors are jubilant over the anticipated success of their strike. Some prominent employing firms acceded to their terms to-day, including Devlin & Co.

A memorial to Congress for the abolition of the duties on coal is being extensively signed.

A naval court martial, for the trial of Paymaster Bogart, charged with absconding with $30,000 to $40,000 of government funds, convened to-day.

Nathaniel Kingsley is under arrest, charged with the removal of a quantity of distilled spirits, upon which tax had not been paid, from his distillery to some place other than a bonded warehouse, and aiding and abetting its concealment.

NEW YORK, August 5.—The Evening Post says of the Central Pacific Railroad bonds, in reply to a question asked: A responsible banking firm assert the total amount of bonds they were authorized to issue is nearly $26,000,000 and to the certain knowledge of the gentlemen not less than $16,000,000 have been sold.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Great Fire—Loss Five Million Dollars—No Lives Lost.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, August 5.—The fire is still burning, but has not spread beyond the ruins. During the night various adjoining stores took fire from sparks and are more or less damaged. The loss is generally estimated at over five millions. It is believed no lives were lost. All accounts agree that the fire was caused by the falling of the floors from the weight of whisky.

H. & S. Catherwood lose 2,000 barrels fine whisky; insured for $217,500, which about covers their loss. Among other heavy losers by the fire are a number of bankers, including Jay Cooke & Co., who had advanced money to whisky dealers to pay tax on June 30th, under the act of Congress. Insurance companies will lose heavily. John Hannis has an insurance of one million dollars. Total loss of insurance on stock $2,299,000, including $38,000 in the Republic and $15,000 in the Merchants at Chicago, and $15,000 in Cleveland. New York and eastern companies are the heaviest losers. The London and Globe lose $180,000; the Imperial of London $139,000; the North American of Philadelphia $125,000. The Philadelphia companies probably lose $400,000.

John Gibson & Sons correct the statement of last night that they had whisky in the Patterson warehouse. They lose nothing by the fire.

Edward Alburger, No. 316 Emmett street, died this afternoon from injuries received at the fire last night. This is the only death known to have occurred from injuries received there.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

The Re-union of Union and Confederate Officers—The Positions of the Forces on the Battle Field.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GETTYSBURG, August 5. — Notwithstanding the time for the re-union of the Union and Confederate armies in order to designate the position of the forces at Gettysburg has been postponed till the week commencing the 23d of August, numbers not aware of the change are already on the ground, and others are arriving by every train. The first stakes were driven to-day. The positions of the "Iron Brigade," which was in the first day's battle, has been indicated and fixed under the direction of General Sol. Meredith. Other parts of the field will be examined to-morrow. Letters and telegrams have been received from all parts of the country, giving assurance that a full attendance may be expected on the 23d inst. The exercises of that day will be closed with a complimentary banquet at the Springs Hotel.

Miners' Strike at Port Henry, N. Y.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, August 4.—It is reported from Port Henry, Essex county, that the miners who turned out on a strike, have been to all the small iron ore beds, and forced the men to stop work. They have unloaded trains on the road, and ordered them home. All business is stopped in the town of Morias except one of the company furnaces. The Sheriff is there with deputies prepared to call out a force large enough to keep the strikers away from the furnaces. There are about seven hundred miners in town.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

NEWS BY CABLE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LONDON, August 5.—The Harvard crew has been rearranged as follows: Loring, stroke, Simmons, Rice and Bass, bow. Their speed has improved, and in their practice yesterday they made from thirty-seven to forty strokes per minute.

DUBLIN, August 5.—The Irish Bishops in conference have resolved that a General Synod, in which the laity as well as clergy are to be represented, shall assemble at an early day. They have also decided to convene the Provincial Synods to consider the local changes necessary to be made in the Church under the present circumstances.

The corporation of the city of Waterford have passed a vote of thanks to Mr. Gladstone for the successful passage of the Irish Church bill.

LONDON, August 4—Midnight.—In the House of Commons to-night, M. Otway, in reply to a question from Mr. Browning, said in consequence of a recommendation of the official Committee the Government had declined to fill the vacancy in the British Consulship at Chicago.

Mr. Stansfeldt moved the second reading of the Canadian bill, which proposes to guarantee a loan of £300,000 for the purchase of the territory and rights of the Hudson Bay Co. Mr. Stansfeldt stated that in order to facilitate the adjustment of this question, which was of considerable importance in respect to the relations with England and America, to promote the settlement of the territory, Her Majesty's government undertook, in accordance with the pledges it had given, to propose this guarantee to the House.

Mr. Monck opposed the motion and made an amendment that the second reading be postponed three months.

Mr. Dales seconded it. He hoped the Government would lay down some clear, distinct policy with respect to colonial guarantee.

After some further discussion the amendment to pospone the second reading was rejected—65 to 19—and the bill was then read for the second time.

In their practice to-day the Harvard crew made better time and show a better form than heretofore. They made thirty-four strokes per minute at the start, and gradually increased the number.

FRANCE.

LONDON, August 4.—The Senatus Consultum, which is rapidly winning favor in France, concedes three cardinal points. First, the Legislature will have to elect its own officers and govern itself. Second, it will have a right to initiate laws. Third, it will have power to control France. It will be thus seen that the sovereign power is divided between the executive, the legislative and the people, who are beginning to recognize, in fact, for the first time in the history of France, that constitutional reforms have been accomplished without force or violence.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—It is reported the Emperor will soon issue a manifesto announcing, as the last act of his personal government, the reduction of certain taxes and the extension of the educational system of France.

AUSTRIA.

PESTH, August the 5.—The Emperor Francis Joseph has declined to grant the petition of the wife of Prince Karagrowish for the pardon of her husband, accused of assassinating the late Prince of Servia, and has ordered that his case be dealt with by the ordinary tribunal.

VIENNA, August 5.—During the discussion of the war estimates in the Reichsrath, Baron Von Buest said it was hazardous to promise to maintain peace for any considerable length of time, but he expressed the opinion that if no war occurred during the next four years the preservation of the peace of Europe for a long period beyond was certain.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, August 5.—During the celebration of a great festival in the Cathedral of Tranisicily the drapery caught fire. The church was crowded at the time. The congregation was seized with panic and rushed for the doors. In the confusion sixteen persons were trampled to death and a large number badly bruised. The fire was easily extinguished before any considerable damage had been done to the Cathedral.

SPAIN.

MADRID, August 4.—Prince Henri de Bourbon, brother-in-law to Isabella, is preparing to return to Spain by permission of the government. The Prince has been seven times banished by the ex-Queen on account of his Radical opinions.

Admiral Topete is striving hard to obtain the Spanish crown for the Duke of Montpensier. It is stated positively that Spain has refused to sell Cuba on any terms to the United States.

CINCINNATI.

National Tobacco Association Organized—The Textile Fabric Exposition—Charges Against Internal Revenue Supervisor—Northwestern Wool Growers and Manufacturers Association—Co-Operation with Southern Manufacturers.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, August 5.—The National Tobacco Association organized to-day and adopted a constitution and by laws. Individuals and firms may be admitted upon payment of twenty-five dollars. The following officers were elected: Wm. E. Lawrence, New York, President; L. H. Frazier, Richmond, Va., Vice President; Joseph Hall, New York, Treasurer; James Gallagher, New Haven, Thomas Carroll, New York, David Campbell, New Jersey, Secretaries. The Constitution was signed by a large number. The President will appoint a financial agent for each State upon his return to New York.

A Treasury agent has been several days in the city investigating the charges against Gen. Young, Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Southern Ohio. Fourteen charges are made against this officer.

W. A. Gann, of Lexington, Ky., has been appointed Chief Engineer of the Southern Railroad. Surveys will commence at once.

The attendance at the exhibition of texile fabrics increased greatly to-day. It would have ran all week with profit. Great multitudes poured in a steady streaam through the building all day. The premiums will be awarded to-morrow, after which the sale of goods will commence. Two days will be required to close out.

A special meeting of the Northwestern Wool-growers and Manufacturers Association was held this morning in the exposition rooms. In the absence of President, John G. Gross, of Ohio, one of the Vice Presidents, took the chair. Jesse McAllister, of Chicago, Secretary of the Association, acted; Harry G. Griffith, of Chicago, Assistant Secretary. S. C. Stevens, of Ohio, offered, and Jesse McAllister, of Chicago, seconded, the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Frequent legislation in regard to tariff and taxes create fluctuations and uncertainties highly injurious to business men;

And whereas, The tariff on wool and woolens was agreed on by representative wool growers and manufacturers, and adjusted for mutual justice; therefore,

Resolved, We approve the present wool and woolen tariff and consider any agitation or radical change injurious and ill-timed.

Resolved, We are opposed to the renewal of what is known as the Canadian Reciprocity Treaty.

Resolved, As the interests of the wool growers and manufacturers are identical, it is right and highly proper they should cultivate more friendly relations, and to that end should attend our expositions more frequently.

On motion of G. B. Stebbins, of Detroit, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, As members of this Association from abroad, and as visitors and exhibitors from the West and South at this exposition, we express our cordial thanks to the committees in Cincinnati for their constant and successful labors in making the exposition a success; to business men of all classes for their hearty co-operation; and to the people we have had the pleasure of meeting for their kind and cordial attentions and generous hospitalities which have made our stay so pleasant and given us some idea of the great resources of the city, the wondrous beauty of its suburbs and generous kindness of its homes.

Mr. Stebbins, of Detroit, also offered the following which was adopted:

Resolved, We rejoice at the unexpected and varied excellence of the work sent from the South and West, and welcome the presence of visitors from those regions, which we trust may be the omen of growth in commercial and social intercourse, not only for the mutual benefit of our material interests, but of cordiality and good feeling between the people of these portions of our common country.

The following were offered by Jesse McAllister, of Chicago, and adopted with enthusiasm:

WHEREAS, The gratifying success of this exposition, and the marked variety and excellence of the fabrics on exhibition, have been materially increased by the efforts and presence of a large number of manufacturers from the Southern States; therefore,

Resolved, It is the sense of this meeting that the sphere of usefulness of the Western Wool Association would be most beneficially increased by such modifications of its constitution and by-laws as would admit our southern brethren to all the rights and privileges of the Association now enjoyed by its western and northwestern members.

Resolved, We fully concur in and appreciate the efforts now being made by Southern manufacturers to co-operate with us, and shall be most happy to receive them into membership with us.

Resolved, It is the sense of this meeting that the name of the Association should be so changed at the next annual meeting, to be held at Chicago in February next, as to include the southern with the northwestern States in all the objects and rights of the organization.

H. R. Gardiner, of Michigan, moved the appointment of a Committee of three to visit the Southern manufacturers, (who at the time were holding a meeting at the Burnet House,) and tender them an invitation to be present with the Association before its adjournment. The motion prevailed and the Chairman appointed as such Committee H. R. Gardiner, of Michigan, Mr. McCracken, of Bucyrus, Ohio, and J. E. Stevens, of O.

During the absence of the committee, Jesse McAllister, of Chicago, spoke briefly of the aims and work of the Association and urged the necessity of a large attendance at the next annual meeting.

The committee, on their return, introduced a delegation from the Southern manufacturers.

Dr. Bussey then read the following record of the action of the Southern manufacturers:

At a meeting this afternoon of the Southern manufacturers, at the Burnet House, M. J. Bussey, of Columbus, Ga., in the chair, and J. S. Kennedy, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Secretary, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, In accepting the invitation to attend the exposition of textile fabrics for the West and South, we have been more than gratified; that we tender to the gentlemen of Cincinnati composing the committees, and all officers and citizens, our warmest thanks for the attentions and kindness shown to us since our arrival in their city. We hope this may be the beginning of a new era in the history of our common country; that it may lead to greater prosperity in manufactures and all other pursuits, and henceforth and forever our interests may be one and indissoluble.

Dr. Bussey also noted the appointment of a Committee to confer with the Board of Trade of this city to bring about a closer re-union of the manufacturing interests of the sections than has existed.

H. R. Gardner moved a Committee from the Western Association to co-operate with the Committee spoken of by Dr. Bussey. The motion prevailed and the Chair appointed W. V. McCracken, of Bucyrus, and H. R. Gardner, of Jonesville, Michigan, J. P. Goodale, of Elgin, Illinois, James Shields, of Davenport, Iowa.

The following was adopted;

Resolved, That members and exhibitors at this Exposition be invited and urged to attend and exhibit at the National Exposition to be held in New York, in September, under the joint auspices of the National Association of wool manufacturers and wool growers.

TENNESSEE ELECTION.

Senter Carries the State by 30,000—Probable Conservative Majority in Both Branches of the Legislature—Rebel Democrats Rejoicing.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, August 5.—The election passed off unusually quiet, the saloons being closed and business generally suspended. Some official reports place Senter's majority in this county at three thousand, and the Democratic candidates for the legislature larger.

Germantown gives Senter two hundred and forty-three votes, and Stokes four.

Jackson gives Senter three hundred and fifty majority in a vote of one thousand two hundred and seventy.

Returns are coming in slowly.

Passengers from Moscow state that a row took place there this afternoon between a drunken colored man and a white boy, during which the former was shot and killed. A general row ensued, during which eight or ten shots were fired, but fortunately no one hurt.

Part of a company of the 14th Infantry arrived here this afternoon from Humboldt to assist in keeping peace, but their services were not required.

NASHVILLE, August 5—The election in this city to-day passed off quietly. No disturbance of any kind occurred. Business houses were generally closed, so as to give those employed an opportunity to work at the polls. The vote was full and the largest ever given. Returns are not yet in. The vote is close, probably one hundred majority in the city for Senter. The county districts go almost unanimously for Senter and will swell his majority to 1,500.

Partial returns from other counties are as follows: Washington, Senter's majority is 200; Bradley, Senter 500, Stokes 510; Gibson, Humboldt precinct, 400 for Senter; Maury, Spring Hill precinct, 155 majority for Senter; Obin, Union City precinct, Senter 505, Stokes 50; Hamilton, Chattanooga, 2 to 1 for Senter; Coffee, Tullahoma, 192 for Senter. 43 for Stokes; Bedford, Stokes' majority at Shelbyville was 191; Weakley, Senter's majority in three districts is 611; the majority in the county will be about 2,000; Giles, Senter's majority is 1,500,

D. Slaughter, Emerson Etheridge, Edmund Cooper and Bailie Crilton are elected to the State Senate from their respective districts.

MEMPHIS, August 5.—The Avalanche's specials give the following returns: Hardman county, Senter's majority, 1,000; three districts in Carroll county give Senter 574, Stokes 5; Milan, Senter 340, Stokes 306; Trezvant, three precincts give Stokes 33; Jackson, this county will give Senter 2,000 majority; Trenton, Stokes 83, Senter, 674; Union City, official, Senter 505, Stokes 28, Ethridge 503, Underwood 25; Hardman county gives Senter 1,000 majority; Grand Junction, Stokes 107, Senter 112; Bartlett, Stokes' majority, 32; Mason, Tipton county, Stokes 246, Senter 85; Covington, town gives Senter 310, Stokes 19; Brownsville, Senter 490, Stokes 503.

The returns show that Senter has carried Middle and Western Tennessee by a sweeping majority, and, making allowance for Stokes' probable majority in East Tennessee, the State by 25,000 or 30,000. The Conservative tickets for the Legislature have been elected in all the districts carried by Senter, and it is probable that the Conservatives will have a majority in both branches of the Legislature.

MEMPHIS, August 5.—The Democrats are rejoicing over the victory in West Tennessee. The entire Democratic Legislative ticket is elected. The following is the official vote of the city: Senter 5,133, Stokes 2,979—Senter's majority 2,171.

Politics in Mississippi.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

JACKSON, Miss. August 5.—The Clarion to-day publishes an address to the people of Mississippi, signed by one hundred and thirty-six gentlemen of the old Whig and Democratic school, and representing every county in the State. They advise the people to support the National Union Republican party and vote for the ticket they present, assured it will be composed of gentlemen actuated by conservative and patriotic principles, taking Virginia as their example in the coming contest, and assuring the people that this party sustains the views of President Grant and the Congressional plan of Reconstruction. The National Union Republican party have called a nominating convention to assemble on the 8th of September in this city.

News from Mexico.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, August 5.—The steamer from Vera Cruz brings dates from the City of Mexico to August 1st. The examination of Caravajal, Espinosa, Sanchez and Veras, on a charge of disloyalty, was in progress.

Prominent citizens and Europeans had been arrested on suspicion of being connected with a plot to assassinate President Juarez and his ministers, and pillage the city. Minister Nelson had been appealed to, but refused to intercede in behalf of the alleged conspirators.

The Revolutionists in Tamaulipas had been defeated by the national troops sent against them.

The Indian war in Yucatan continues and is extending.

Railroad Stock Troubles in New York.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALBANY, August 5.—Mr. Sherman, of the firm of Fields & Sherman, of New York, arrived here to-day with injunctions issued by Judge Barnard, to serve on President Ramsay and Treasurer Phelps, of the Susquehanna Railroad. The complaint in the case of the Treasurer recites that he refused to transfer the stock of the towns of Oneita and Worcester, being incited thereto by President Rrmsay. The complaint against President Ramsay is based on the issue of certain stock about a year ago, and he is enjoined from further issue of stock, and also from acting as President of the road. In the absence of President Ramsay, Col. North locked the doors of the office of the Company, but they were immediately reopened by Superintendent Vanvalkenberg. A large crowd gathered about the office, as there were indications of an outbreak, but the police being notified quiet was restored. Jacob Leonard, one of Colonel North's party, seized the scrip book, but brought it back after keeping it several hours. The stock of the town of Sydney, Delaware county, was transferred to Jay Gould, and the crowd dispersed, though the end is not yet.

Election in North Carolina.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILMINGTON, Aug. 5.—The election to fill a vacancy in the Legislature passed off without disturbance to-day. No reliable returns have been received, but it is generally conceded that Eagles is elected by several hundred majority in a poll of about 5,000 votes. Two Republican candidates were in the field. The Eagles faction was led by the Northern whites and represents what is known here as the more extreme Republicans. Larkins, moderate Republican, was supported by conservative whites. The election was regarded so important that the county was canvassed by Gen. Abbott, United States Senator, in behalf of the Eagles faction. The election was exciting and an unusual interest manifested. The conservatives had no candidates and polled about half their strength for Larkins.

Movement of Naval Vessels.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, August, 5. — The United States steamer Juniata went to sea last night and the Dictator to-day. The Constitution was taken to the navy yard yesterday, and will proceed to Norfolk, where she will be retained as receiving ship. The Miantonamah, double turreted monitor, and the steamer Cambridge are also fitting out for service at this navy yard.

A Heavy Suit.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., August 5.—The suit of J. B. Brown against Col. D. J. Young, involving the title to the Government property at Harper's Ferry, valued at several millions of dollars, is on trial here, Chief Justice Chase on the bench. Hon. B. Stanton appears for the plaintiff, and Hon. B. Smith and H. H. Blackburn for the United States.

Mrs. Duvall number three died at St. Louis suddenly, July 11th, 1868, and it is probable her remains will be exhumed and subjected to a chemical analysis.

—At Evansville, Indiana, yesterday, a most exciting election was held on a proposition to appropriate two hundred and forty-two thousand dollars to aid in constructing a railroad into Southern Illinois. Bands of music paraded the streets and much interest was manifested. The whole vote cast in the city was 2,643; for the appropriation, 2,241; against, 462; majority, 1,830. It is expected that the county townships will materially reduce this majority, but cannot defeat the appropriation.

LOVE-LIGHT.

"Go down to the meadow at break of day,
Go down to the meadow, son John,
And labor away 'mid the sweetest hay
That ever the sun shone on."

And John went down to the meadow-land,
But he saw not the clover sweet,
And the sky was dun, for he missed the sun,
Though it reddened his brow with heat.

He missed the sun, and he missed the light,
And the world seemed upside down,
Till he caught the sight of a smile so bright,
And a linsey-woolsey gown.

Till he caught the sight of a golden head,
And a fair and merry face,
When so bright and round, with a sudden bound,
The sun went up in its place;

The sun went up and the light came down,
And the field was all aglow,
While his heart kept time to the merry rhyme
Of the reapers song below.

As she turned from his fond caress,
Though the south wind blew from her lips so true,
The sweet little answer, Yes.

* * * * * *

"Oh! wherefore so glad?" said farmer Gray,
"Oh! wherefore so glad, son John?
For the storm to-day spoiled the sweetest hay
That ever the sun shone on."

But John knew nothing of rain or flood,
And nothing of ruined hay;
For the flowers of joy to the farmer's boy,
Were scattered along the way.

And merry the wedding bells rang out,
And merry the pipers did play,
At the golden dawn of the happy morn
That ushered the marriage day.

PENNSYLVANIA.

THE young men of Washington have organized a Library Society.

GEN. GRANT'S eldest two sons have been visiting for some time in Washington county.

THE new Methodist Church at Irish Valley, Northumberland county, was completely destroyed by fire last week.

THURSTON, the æronaut, has bet $500 that he can go from Meadville to New York in thirty-six hours, and in a balloon. The attempt is to be made on Monday, the 8th inst.

THE "Doom of the Ku-Klux-Klan" is the name of the poem recited at the recent commencement of Lafayette College by the class-poet, Mr. H. Denny McKnight, of Allegheny.

ON Thursday of last week an Irish laborer, working on the Connellsville railroad extension, was killed by the caving in of a bank of earth in Turkeyfoot township, Somerset county.

THE Greensburg Herald says on Thursday of last week some scamp in human shape entered the English Lutheran Church at Adamsburg, that county, and stole therefrom some thirty yards of carpet, which covered the floor on and around the pulpit, and the cover off the melodeon.

ON Wednesday evening of last week, Anthony O'Donnell, a miner, employed in the mines of the Cambria Iron Company, was coming out of the mines from his work, carrying some miner's picks on his shoulder, when he was struck by a car, which knocked him down and drove one of the sharp picks into his back, it penetrated into vital parts of the body and killed him.

THE Montour American says: The puddlers have struck for higher wages at the National Iron Works. To an advance in wages we understand the managers make no objection, but allege that the puddlers violated the contract by not giving the usual notice before quitting work. The proprietors have posted up notices, in which they offer six dollars per ton, and require two weeks' notice previous to a discharge, change in prices or cessation of work. They also peremptorily discharged all puddlers who have been engaged in the strike In a later paragraph the American announces that work is about to be resumed with an entirely new corps of puddlers.

A MAN named Stult, living near this city, recently died and willed his whole estate, amounting to about $10,000, to the Orphans' Home, at Flatrock, Seneca county, Ohio.—Fremont Journal.

FROM all parts of the State the harvest news is remarkably good. Most of the wheat is in, much of it having to be cut with sickles, and all the other crops are said to be especially full and good.

IN removing the dead from an old burying ground to the cemetery at Columbiana, Ohio, a few days ago, the body of a Mr. Raird, who was buried six years ago, was found to be entirely petrified.

MRS. KISER, at Piqua, Ohio, ran to defend her child against a vicious cow, a few days ago, when she was herself caught upon the cow's horns, thrown across a fence and so hurt that her recovery is in doubt.

THE Salem Journal says: Mr. J. F. Coyle has purchased the buildings known as White's Ax Factory, and is now fitting them up as Flax Mills. For a long time there has been a great need of an institution of this kind at this place. The raising of flax for the seed has of late been very profitable, and now that the straw can be sold to a good advantage, it will still further encourage its cultivation.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Two gentlemen went to every well in the township on Tuesday last and got a correct estimate of the daily production of oil. The number of barrels from all the wells amounted to three hundred and fifty-one barrels per diem.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Wirt county Democrat writes that Mr. Patterson is putting down a new well onthe hillside. He is down about 900 feet, and has a good show for oil in the sand rock. Mr. D. A. James is also putting down a new well on the opposite hill, on the Dick Petty farm.

DURING the heavy storm up Wheeling Creek, on Friday of last week, a lad, about twelve or fourteen years of age, living with Mr. Wm. Daig, went out into the garden to remove some valuable flowers, and has not since been heard from. As several out-houses, agricultural implements and even live stock are known to have been carried away in the flood, it is thought the boy was drowned and floated into the Ohio river.—Wheeling Register.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Summer in Florida—Night Breezes—Daily Showers—Florida's Accessibility—New Lines of Travel and Means of Approach—Cedar Keys—Remnants of Antiquity—The Effect of Drouth on Corn, Cotton and Sugar—Desire for Northern Immigration—Cattle Raising, etc., etc.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PALATKA, FLORIDA, July 27, 1869.

There has been something of a scattering, I fancy, in the group that bade each other good bye in your sanctum, on that hot June day. Some have doubtless patronized other points of the compass, but as for your correspondent, he found it in his heart to turn his face toward the tropic of Cancer. The truth is, I have long had "a warm side," as they say here, for Florida, and have learned by experience that, while the Summers here are quite summery enough, they are far from being as oppressive as one would judge from the latitude. I question, indeed, whether I have suffered here from the heat this month as much as those of your indefatigable corps who have been doing duty so much nearer the birth place of the iceberg. The daily showers of the rainy season and the winds from the Atlantic or the Gulf, make a Florida summer a thing to be remembered, on the whole, with pleasure. It is a special luxury to be able, even if the day has been warm enough to afford a pretext for complaint, to open your windows to the night breeze and let it shed from its wings upon your eyelids the balm of gentle slumber. There is too, for susceptible souls, I am told, a goodly amount of romance in the moonlight of these parts, especially along the banks of the noble St. Johns, opposite this place, and under the lordly oaks that here skirt its banks.

Florida is becoming accessible in the fullest degree. Besides the close connections heretofore made by fine steamers from Savannah with those coming out from New York, she has now a line direct from New York to Fernandina, in the hands of a company that wield a power of money and energy that seems to assure the largest success. They run steamers also on the Gulf from Cedar Keys to Mobile, the Florida Railroad forming the link between the two ports. They can carry freight at lower rates than all-rail lines, whilst their avoidance of the perils of the Keys gives them an advantage in insurance that enables them to compete successfully with steamers that expose themselves to these dangers. A very fast steamer has been purchased to run between Havana and Cedar Keys, making the trip between sunrise and sunset, enabling the Cubans, who in general, I believe, have a weak stomach at sea, to reach Northern ports, if they choose, with the very minimum of sea travel.

On a hasty visit I made a few days since to Cedar Keys, I was impressed with the evident life and spring that characterized the new community that is gathering around the railway station. This is not, strictly speaking, at Cedar Keys. The old town bearing that name is on a Key or island farther out than that appropriated by the railroad company, the latter being of old named the Way Key, and being accessible from the main land by a long stretch of pilings. The formation of these sandy islands of Keys is of great interest. Colonel Downy, an intelligent new-comer into the place, informed me that Prof. Wyman spent last winter there and in the vicinity, and was rewarded in his geological researches by the discovery of some human remains of extraordinary size. Colonel Downy promised to interest himself to secure for the Western University the counterpart of Prof. W.'s collection. This is not the first time I have heard of human skeletons in Florida soil, suggestive of an old race of giants. Altogether, for the man of general scientific culture, who can enter with spirit into discussions of questions in geology, mineralogy, physical geography, the nature of soils, of which there is here an indefinite variety, together with points relating to ethnology and social science in a community working out a new problem, I know of no more inviting field for investigation than Florida. One can go scarcely anywhere without falling in with some one who has an extraordinary spring, "sink" or the like to tell him of, or some specimens of rock or earth, the constitution and peculiarities of which he is curious to know. I have heard in several quarters of the discovery of substances that have the appearance and smells of phosphate of lime. It is a pity the value of these deposits could not be immediately and thoroughly investigated. I was even told of the discovery lately in a gorge near Ocala, Marion county, of a rock rich enough in petroleum to make it combustible. I speak of this only as a matter of curious interest, having no idea that the quantity procurable is at all large.

The drought early in the season has reduced by a large percentage the anticipated crop of corn throughout Florida. This is hard, particularly on the freedmen, who are in general unprepared to buy. The cotton, however, is thus far very promising, and, while there is a daily dread of the caterpillar, especially so as we are now having heavy rains daily, one of the most intelligent planters in the State assured me the other day that, with all that this destructive worm can possibly do thus late in the season, the yield of cotton this year can scarcely but be handsomely remunerative. He spoke also most hopefully of the sugar cane, a crop, in his opinion, altogether preferable to cotton. Some of his estimates of what can be done on such lands as he works, in Marion county, estimates founded on what he has actually done, are simply startling.

There is a great deal of emulation among the people of various sections of Florida to secure the settlement among them of good, substantial and energetic men from the North. The planter, to whom I have just referred, has entered into a co-partnership with such a gentleman in Pennsylvania, which has proved most satisfactory to both parties.

In regard to the expediency of northerners emigrating to this State, I would say that abundance of testimony, of the strongest kind, can be adduced both pro and contra. Most of those who have become dissatisfied will be found, however, to be those who have made the important move of a change of homes with inadequate inquiry as to what they are to expect here. This is no place for mere romance, nothing indeed can be more exquisitely beautiful than some of these Florida scenes, but work here is just what it is everywhere, a hard, stubborn thing that but ill agrees with most men's inclinations. I would advise no one to come here until he is thoroughly aware, not only that he has hardships to undergo, but also what their exact nature is. What to some is a matter scarcely of complaint, is to others quite intolerable. That livelihoods are made here by new comers with less cost to muscle and to the general constitution than by farmers at the north, the testimony of multitudes proves.

I have just heard of the arrival here of the steamer Louisburgh, direct from New York. She comes to carry live cattle to the New York market. It is contemplated to keep up a fortnightly line. This will give an idea of the capabilities of this country for stock raising.

I question whether there is in the Union a community where better order is maintained and where better feeling prevails between the different classes of society than in Florida. The freedmen, whatever may be said of their industry and thrift, are certainly quiet and peaceable. It is surprising how different are the representations you will receive from gentlemen of equal standing, and reared too, under the same political influences, in regard to the conduct of this people. My own conviction is that if one comes prepared to pay wages in cash, and settle somewhere near their own little homesteads, he can command all the labor he wants. They will not go far from home on a long engagement upon any terms. I do not see but they are as respectful and as ready to oblige a friend or a stranger as they ever were.

But I have gone far past the point at which I should have declared myself, as ever, yours, C. P. E.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

The particulars of an exciting affair that almost ended in a double tragedy transpired in Newark, N. J. A well known and wealthy French gentleman, it was reported, had made a determined attempt to take the life of his daughter and her lover, and had afterward attempted to cut his own throat. On Saturday morning Mr. Peter F. Sedille, residing in Railroad avenue, discovered what he thought to be a proof of criminality on the part of his daughter and Joseph Conover, who had been paying his addresses to her. On Friday evening, Conover called at the house, and the pair, sitting upon the sofa, had fallen asleep. They were awakened at daybreak on Saturday by the footsteps of the father. The girl, who, it is stated, has always been severly treated, hurried Conover out of the room, and told him to hide himself in her room up stairs. But the father's suspicions were aroused and he followed. When he discovered the presence of Conover he went down stairs, and seizing his daughter, dragged her up to the room. He then drew a dirk, and attacked both, but Conover, who possesses considerable strength, defended the girl and himself with such vigor that the father was forced out of the room. He then procured a loaded rifle, aimed at Conover, and pulled the trigger, but the charge failed to go off. Before he could make another movement the father of young Conover entered and secured Sedille, while the girl and young Conover escaped from the house. After Sedille had became calm, the girl returned to the house, and tried to persuade him of her innocence. But he attacked her again, this time with a razor, and was struggling with her when the neighbors, alarmed by her cries, came to her rescue. The girl was again removed and Sedille was for some reason allowed to go at large, no information of his conduct being given to the police. On Sunday he sent for his daughter, and in her presence destroyed his will, in which he had provided for the payment of $20,000 to her upon his death. During the day, it is stated, he made an attempt to take his own life, but was again prevented from executing his intentions. It is stated that he will be placed in the Lunatic Asylum by his friends.

Coffee.

The Rev. J. C. Fletcher, late of Brazil, now Consul to Oporto, gives the following information in a late lecture.

A good cup of coffee could not be made by boiling—the best cup goes up in smell to the fourth story of the house, and people should brown and grind their own coffee. There is no way for the south and west to get good coffee except to ask for the golden Rio, or gold washed Rio, and when they ask for that they will get what they want. Coffee, should be browned in a cylinder evenly, and not burned. It should be ground, about like corn meal, and one tablespoonful put in the pot for every cup. One cup of water for every four cups of coffee is enough. It should not be boiled; percolating is the only Christian way to make coffee, When done, pour one quarter of a cup of the decoction in a cup, and fill up with boiled milk. By this plan you will have a drink worthy of the gods. Water and coffee have no affinity for each other; boiled milk only should be used.

There were grown in the different countries in the years 1866 67;

	Sacks.
Venezuela,	193,000
Java,	240,000
Ceylon,	256,600
Costa Rica,	60,000
Guatemala,	80,000
While in Brazil were grown,	2,096,000

Of which 1,100,000 sacks came to the United States. It is also true that the books of our custom-houses show the importation of but five sacks of Mocha from Africa in the past seven years. The blossom of the coffee plant is like the white jessamine, and exhales an aroma worthy of Eden. At the head waters of La Plata I saw a stretch of coffee orchards 30 miles in extent. One planter, out of 450 acres of ground, made, clear of all expenses, with 76 negroes, $48,000 in gold.

How to See the Eclipse.

We submit the following eclipse calculation after deducting the latitude of one node which is 30 degrees and the other in longitude 30x180—210—the equatorial parallax. Let sand u. be the co-ordinates of any point on the sun's course, and X and W the co-ordinates of any point on the elliptic curve of the moon, then we have the following equations:

1. U—P. Sin. L. Cos. DXP. Cos. L. Sin. D. Cos. T. 2. S—P. Cos. L. Sin. T. Solar co-ordinates.

3. W—DXhi. Sin. B. 4. X—hi. Cos. B. Lunar co-ordinates.

In these remarkable equations, P. is the semi diameter of projection; L. the latitude; D. the sun's declination; T. the time from apparent moon; and D. represents this diversity in declination between sun and moon at conjunction in night ascension. Then wind up with this continental equation: (S.aU.)2X(W.aY.2—to the times the eclipse of the sun takes place next Saturday, which will be at 5h. 12m. past meridian.

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL
private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future evil, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and the unfortunate imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaints should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female Complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases in a year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free of charge or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelope. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten private rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, which others daily personal attention is required. For the accommodation of such patients there apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared under the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who has failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 2 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WOOD STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 5, 1869.

The oil market, although firmer and apparently tending upward, is quiet with a very light volume of business in the aggregate. The improvement is attributed to the improved character of the foreign advices, though, as has been the case nearly all season, oil is higher here, relatively, than there.

CRUDE.

Is firmer and sellers generally were asking 15 cts, but buyers are very scarce at that figure. Sale of 1000 spot at 11¾; and 2000 (40 to 45 gravity) at 15. Seller all year, is nominal at 14¼@14½, and buyer all year, at 16@16¼.

REFINED

Sale of 300 spot, at 31¾, an advance compared with yesterday of fully half a cent, and the same figure was bid for 1,500 more. September and October to December, quoted at 33.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was rising slowly last evening with three feet six inches in the channel. Weather cool, cloar and pleasant. Mercury at 5 P M, 76 in shade.

—The Kenton, from Portsmouth, and Petrolia, from Parkersburg arrived. The latter departed again and the Kenton departs to-day.

—The Belle has withdrawn from the Parkersburg trade in order to make repairs.

—The Argosy did not leave on Wednesday night as announced, having been detained until yesterday morning. At last accounts she was aground on Glass House bar, but has doubtless ere this got off.

—The Glendale left Cincinnati for this port on Tuesday.

—The R. C. Gray was loading at Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The tow boat Wilson was to have left Cairo for this port on Tuesday, with a tow of empty barges.

—The house of Wm. Kirker, 6 miles below Manchester, on the Kentucky side of the river, was totally destroyed by fire Monday night. Loss $2,000. Mr. Kirker is an old and well-known, mate, but has been farming recently. All that he owned in the world was swept away in one night, as there was no insurance.

—The steamer St. Louis has been sold by Mr. P. Geise to the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad for the some of $24,000. It will be used for transporting cars from Belmont, Mo., to Columbus, Ky. The boat was built at Freedom, Pa., this year, is 100 feet in length, and 31 feet beam; tonage, 250,83 tons.

—The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that steamboats that only touch at port on our inland lakes and on our coasts shall not be subject to entrance and clearance fees.

—The Northern and White Collar Lines are preparing a low water programme for the fall trade on the Upper Mississippi. The river will be divided into sections, and some of the boats of the line are being asssigned to their proper places above the rapids.

—Capt. Jas. Lloyd contemplates going into the commission business at St. Louis.

—It is stated that one-half of the Mountaineer has been sold to the Miami packet Company for $12,000, and that she will go into the Kansas trade.

—The wife of Capt. J. A. Frazier died at Cincinnati on Tuesday.

—Capt. John W. Russell, a veteran of the war of 1812, and a pioneer steamboat man in the Louisville and New Orleans trade, died at his residence in Franklin county, near Frankfort, on Sunday, at a ripe old age. He was in the river service for thirty years, during which time he owned and commanded a number of steamers, among which were the North America, Empress and Caledonia. In 1845 he was appointed superintendent of the snag fleet for the improvement of Western rivers, and a number of snag boats were built under his supervision.

—We clip the following items from the Sioux City Journal, of July 29th: The Silver Lake No. 4 left this port last Friday night, to take on and proceed with freight for Fort Randall which was given to the Big Horn, but which became disabled by the breaking of her shaft. The latter proceeded to Omaha to await repairs. The Ida Rees No. 2 arrived here from Grand river last Saturday. She remained here only long enough to take on a load of freight for a return trip.

The steam packet Peninah arrived here on Sunday afternoon from Grand river, and reports the "Big muddy" as being quite low and navigation difficult.

The Evening Star left for Omaha yesterday afternoon.

THE registration of voters proceeds quietly at Philadelphia. Two Republicans and one Democratic canvasser are appointed for every precinct in the city, an arrangement which ensures ample precautions against any fraudulent lists.

THE Radical Republicans of Mississippi have satisfactory assurance from Washington that the Conservatives "have not the sympathy or support of any one connected with the Federal Administration." General AMES continues in the military command, and will enforce the reconstruction policy faithfully, and with the President's cordial support.

THE LAST Cuban sensation was created by a rumor that the American Minister to Madrid had been instructed, by our Government, to urge the sale of the island to the insurgents, whose bonds for the purchase-money, a trifle of only fifty millions, were to be guaranteed by the United States. This rumor was sensational only among such people as have enough of simple credulity to believe every canard from Washington. Of course, it had no real foundation in fact. General SICKLES has had no such instructions; our Government has not the remotest intention of committing itself to a folly so insane, and Spain would not entertain the proposition if made. In about a month or six weeks, the canard will be again revived, for the amusement of the flats, who swallow it with implicit faith, as often as it may be presented.

THE FRIENDS of Washington and Jefferson Colleges—we hope soon to be able to say College, in the singular—are clearly in earnest, in their zealous efforts for the re-organization of these institutions, in the interests of a more practical usefulness to the public. The day cannot be far distant when the complete union of two feeble branches shall render the one College a prosperous and effective element in the instruction of our youth, her halls once more filled with profiting students, her pecuniary resources solidly established, her faculty of teachers strong in ability and experience, her old renown restored and redoubled, under a merited public regard, and the College of Washington and Jefferson elevated to its proper dignity as a seat of learning, of which any Commonwealth might be proud. Among the steps of late taken to these ends, we recognize the installation of Rev. Dr. BITTINGER, now of Sewickley, in the Presidency, as of the most auspicious promise. He brings to his new duties a ripe scholarship, a large experience, the highest regard of countless friends, and the eminent graces of a christian walk and conversation. We congratulate the Trustees upon their choice.

RUMORS come to us of an organized movement, among influential citizens of the British Provinces on this Continent, for the more perfect vindication of their local interests, as a part of the colonial empire of England, or, as the alternative, for some form of incorporation with the Republic. We doubt if this movement engages, to any notable extent, the sympathies of the influential classes in the two Canadas, Bermuda or the Bahamas. But it has been apparent, of late, that the people of the North Eastern provinces and islands, and of the Pacific territory, are fast ripening into an annexation policy. Perhaps nine-tenths of the inhabitants of British Columbia are earnestly desirous of this consummation. Whatever solid basis there may be for the reports which now transpire, it is in that direction that a Federal policy of acquisition would do a hundred-fold more to illustrate true statesmanship, and to advance the material interests of the Union, than to dally with any delusive temptations in the West Indian seas. When our flag floats along an unbroken coast from Behring's Straits to the Gulf of California, it will be but a step, short and soon, which shall complete our mastery of the Continent to the Isthmus of Panama and an undisputed supremacy of the North Pacific ocean. The West Indian plums will fall into our mouths when they are ripe. We don't want them before. We shall have them then, without effort or cost. In the meantime, an entire continent should be ours.

THE PUBLIC CREDIT.

If a nation has no occasion to use its credit, it is certainly in a happy condition, and need have no anxiety as to the conditions under which its obligations could be placed in the market. But when a nation is heavily in debt, and is paying a high rate of interest on the whole sum, or the greater part thereof, it is compelled to husband resources, to see that no revenues are wasted, but that all are properly collected and applied, and that such reductions are actually made, from time to time, as will give assurance that, within a reasonable period, complete cancellation will be accomplished. The good effects of such a policy, rigidly pursued, are not only prospective, but immediate. Public credit is fortified, and soon fresh loans, negotiated at reduced rates, can be made to replace old ones, bearing larger interest. This lessened rate, the result of improved confidence, constitutes in itself, a material and enduring reduction of the common burden.

When President GRANT entered upon the administration of the government, he almost instantly stopped many serious leaks in the Treasury. With the same laws substantially as were in operation during the last year of his predecessor, he at once increased the income at the rate of one hundred and twenty millions of dollars annually. That increase is still maintained, and is likely to hold until either Congress shall see proper to abolish some of the taxes or a commercial revulsion shall befall the country. Nor have these gains been realized from retrenchments of the expenditures. Necessarily that duty will not be entered upon until Congress shall next assemble in regular session. So much plunder has been rescued from the spoilers, by putting honest men in positions which rogues filled before.

These large savings Mr. BOUTWELL has applied to the purchase of national bonds and the withdrawal of legal tender notes; mainly the former. So far as bonds have been bought, they have been carried to the Sinking Fund, which is provided for the ultimate extinguishment of the entire indebtedness.

Objections have been raised to the continuance of this process by two classes of people. Business men dissent from the plan of contracting the currency by the withdrawal of greenbacks. The popular theory with them is that the volume of paper money should not be reduced but held where it is, until the natural growth of business in the country shall cause it to cease being redundant. They argue that in this way the specie basis will be reached without a monetary convulsion, which would prove ruinous to thousands of most enterprising and efficient men. Without stopping to examine this theory, we may remark that it seems impolitic, if not absurd, to retire obligations that do not bear interest, instead of obligations that do. A business man, who had outstanding these same classes of indebtedness, and could not take up both, and found that which drew no interest not to be pressing, would certainly take the interest bearing obligations out of the way and as fast as possible. Speculators in stocks who desire to depress public securities, object to having the Secretary of the Treasury interfere with their schemes by demonstrating that the Government is really master of the situation. As their schemes are hostile to the general welfare; involved in the maintenance of the national credit, their lamentations and protests are not worth taking into serious consideration.

But this it is of importance to dwell upon; that with the Government in the market as buyer of its own obligations, they have advanced in value to such a degree that fresh loans, of vast magnitude, are offered at a much lower rate of interest than that now paid. True, the Secretary is without authority of law to accept these offers; but when Congress shall come together such authority will undoubtedly be given him, greatly to the relief of the tax-payers.

We recall the attention of our readers to these points at this time as furnishing a valid and conclusive argument why the present administration at Washington should be sustained. This must be apparent to every Republican. Nothing, this year, can be of greater consequence towards sustaining President GRANT, and the financial policy he is wisely and successfully pursuing than a Republican triumph in Pennsylvania next October. For such a triumph all smaller considerations, if any such stand in the way, ought to be cheerfully sacrificed. They will be. Already the signs of triumph appear and multiply. Let whoever can, help to swell the proportions of the victory.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

For some weeks prior to the assembling of their late State Convention, the Democrats of Pennsylvania professed to be sanguine of success in the Gubernatorial election which is approaching. In this particular, if in no other, their actions seemed to be in harmony with their declarations. What causes inspired them with this pleasant anticipation we searched diligently to find, but after a great deal of care and pains taking, we were utterly baffled. Admitting the worst interpretation of the political portents that was fairly possible, we could not discover even the faintest clew to the apparent Democratic elation. It was unaccountable, to the very verge of the mysterious. All the dark facts of the unpatriotic record made up by the Democratic leaders and masses, against themselves, before the war and while it was progressing, remained in all the original repulsiveness and criminality. Nothing of pith and moment had been done by them to relieve the odium under which, by their own willful procurement, they justly rested. A few cheap platitudes, as insincere as they were inexpensive, in commendation of the soldiers and sailors whose heroism and endurance saved the Union, were all the changes made in their formularies of faith, but the old animus, too virulent and active for concealment, was as conspicuous as at any former period.

On the Republican side was disclosed a record of constancy and devotion unmatched in the annals of any age or nation; a steady and consistent development of ideas and purposes, as the great drama unrolled; and a marvellous consummation, conceived, indeed, and hoped for during weary years, but only dimly expected, if at all, at last rounding in lines of perfection not to be exceeded. If there were incidental discomforts in the swing and sweep of the grand events; if some bad men, loud in proclamations of disinterested intentions, but in reality only self-seekers, and unscrupulous in all their methods, managed to get into positions of influence; this was no more than has happened from the beginning of the world, in calm as well as in storm, under all forms of government and religion, and in both Church and State. Such mischiefs or irritations are always and necessarily amenable to remedies which are clearly within the reach of those who have the courage to apply them.

This democratic elation, to which we have referred, was the true reason of the hot rivalry that was manifested between the supporters respectively of PACKER and CASS. The delusive thought that if either of those gentlemen should be nominated, he would surely be elected, sharpened the enterprise and added a dash of acerbity to the feelings of their clansmen. The two factions, owing to long exclusion from power and place, were equally hungry for such honors and emoluments as a victory at the polls would give them. The little that a State administration has to bestow was regarded with an insatiable longing. If it would not suffice, it would stay the appetite until more might be obtained.

The strife ended, as all people know, in the nomination of Mr. PACKER; and from the day he was declared the candidate up to this hour, the confidence of his supporters in the possibility of his election has steadily abated. This was natural enough. Estimable as he confessedly is in his private life, he has no qualifications whatever for public service, and hence is devoid of those salient qualities that are indispensable to the awakening of enthusiasm. Even his vast fortune, honorably acquired, and the social eminence which it gives him, prove to be disadvantages rather than helps. While the Democratic leaders—the men who furnish the brains for the party—are aristocratic beyond all precedent in this country, where money asserts its prerogatives more offensively than in any other land the sun shines upon, the masses of their followers hold wealth to be pretty nearly synonymous to robbery. That masses which are swayed by such conceptions of wealth, and such prejudices against its possessors, should follow the leaders they do, may be taken as one of the strongest existing illustrations of the force of intellect; of the power of superior mental endowments to achieve the mastery, even under the most adverse circumstances,

Whether the case of the Democrats would have been any better than it now is, had Mr. CASS been made the candidate, instead of Mr. PACKER, it is hardly worth while to stop to consider. The faction of which he is the favorite, thinks so, and that is enough for them. Certainly he is a higher order of man than his successful competitor, and would have exercised the functions of Governor, if that office had fallen to his lot, with greater general and special capacity. But even this consideration, it seems to us, would not have altered the predestined result.

The fact is, the Republicans have a decided majority of the legal voters of Pennsylvania. This is why the Democrats have steadily resisted all attempts made by the Legislature to lessen, if not entirely prevent frauds upon the ballot-box. In an honest poll, they know they are sure to be badly beaten. Hence, their stout opposition to efficient Registry Laws and all other enactments calculated to secure the purity of the elective franchise. Indeed, every body understands perfectly that whenever Democratic legislators or Judges of the Supreme Court have assigned other reasons either to prevent such laws or to evade them, they have only sought to disguise their motives, their real design being to render frauds not only possible, but easy.

With all the illegal votes the Democrats have been able to put into the boxes, they have not succeeded in electing a Governor for many years past. Indeed, at every attempt their chances have sensibly diminished, even in the absence of any proper registration of the voters. How shall they succeed, no matter how earnestly they may strive, now that wholesale frauds are rendered difficult if not impossible through the intervention of new and salutary laws? In truth, the Democrats are fast coming to take a correct view of the situation, and to perceive that Mr. Packer's case is hopeless. At the same time the Republicans are shaking off their apathy, and evincing a determination to keep the ascendency they have long held, with honor to themselves and profit to the Commonwealth. Gov. GEARY will be re-elected.

THE RECENT CRISIS IN ENGLAND.

Neither party is satisfied, but the Ministry have yielded enough to disgust their more radical supporters, and to persuade the Tories they might have had more for the asking. As it is, they have but little cause to be discontented. This poor disendowed church goes out into the world with a mere fig leaf of some £10,000,000 sterling to cover its nakedness. It is disestablished in fact, but disendowed more in name than in deed. Two-thirds of its property remain to it, and since it will at once contract the area of its work and reduce its staff, it is likely to be actually richer in future than it has been hitherto, The leading Tory organ is at no pains to conceal its satisfaction with the amount of plunder these meek and lowly ministers of the church have finally pocketed. "A series of concessions were made," says this journal, "which gives the Church a sum much less than its rightful claims, but still of an amount to enable the new Church, with the aid of the voluntary contributions which the zeal of her sons will furnish, to start on her new career under circumstances not altogether unfavorable."

THE corporators of the East River Bridge at New York, have unanimously appointed Col. WASH. ROEBLING to succeed his father as Chief Engineer. One of the foundations of the bridge will be laid this season. The plans submitted by the late engineer, although very strenuously opposed by outside parties, had been unanimously approved by the Commission of United States Engineers to whom they had been referred. In relation to his successor, the President of the Company says:

Mr. Roebling, during his lifetime, had employed, as his assistant in the enterprise, his son, Mr. Washington Roebling, a young man of great promise, then residing in Cincinnati, and only 33 years of age. Previous to the death of Mr. Roebling, Sr., that gentleman had frequently told him (the speaker) that he was the only living engineer who could carry the work through to a successful termination. His son had since gone to Europe for the purpose of examining all the works now going on, or which have been finished, of a character similar to that proposed for the bridge which will connect New York with Brooklyn. All who knew young Mr. Roebling spoke of him in the highest manner, and extolled his abilities as an engineer.

AN Indianapolis dispatch says:

It is rumored in railroad circles that the consolidation contract between the PanHandle route and its connections and the Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central Railroad, forming the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad, will be canceled at an early date, it being found that the present arrangements are not advantageous to the particular interests of either of the contracting parties. It is said that orders have already been issued countermanding the previous orders changing the initials on the rolling stock belonging to the different companies forming the consolidation. It is also reported that the last quarterly expenditures of one of the roads exceeded the receipts $56,000.

THE new treaty between the North-German Confederation and the United States, for the protection of emigrants, provides for the formation of an international sworn Commission in the ports of departure and arrival. Besides possessing the right of thoroughly examining the emigrant-ships, the Commission shall be empowered to summon and hear witnesses, to prescribe all necessary oaths and declarations, to impose fines and punish with imprisonment, to decide in all cases of claims for compensation, and to pronounce a ship unfit for transporting passengers between the ports of the two contracting parties. The resolutions and verdicts of the respective Commissions shall be decisive in case of their being unanimous, and when there is a difference of opinion among them, an appeal may be made to the highest Court competent in marine affairs belonging to the State under the flag of which the vessel in question sails. The members of the Commission shall discharge their functions gratuitously, but the under-officers are to receive a salary. The costs of administration shall be defrayed by fees, fines, &c., imposed by Commissions, and any balance remaining over and above, after meeting the expenses, shall be applied to the relief of indigent emigrants.

—The Swedish Consul at New York asks for contributions in aid of the sufferers by the conflagration at Gefle, nearly two-thirds of which city has been burned and eight thousand persons rendered houseless.

Packer's Recommendations.

ASA PACKER bolts Stephen A. Douglass in favor of Breckinridge, the Southern fire-eater, who developed into the wickedest among rebels. Will the old Douglass Democrats swallow Packer now?

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER."—It is a well ascertained fact that Asa Packer deserted the friends of Stephen A. Douglass, at the Charleston Convention in 1860—that he entertained Vallandigham at his own house, during the war, and that he was nominated at Harrisburg, through the influence of such men as Frank Hughes—Alderman McMullen—and Brick Pomeroy. Vallandigham, Hughes—McMullen and Pomeroy.

THE Reading Times is ventilating Asa Packer's love for the poor man. The Times says that Mr. Packer amassed a colossal fortune by grinding the faces of the poor. Years ago he made heavy contracts for boating coal to New York, and got a kind of monopoly of the business. He carried his oppression of boatmen so far that they rebelled against him, and resorted to a strike. He went to South Eaton, where the boatmen had congregated, to compel them to continue in his service, but so violent was the feeling against him that he was seized by the men, thrown into the Lehigh, and would have been drowned but for a timely rescue. So exasperated were the men against Packer, that they drove the man who had saved his life from the ground with stones! A fortune wrung out of the sweat of other men does not carry with it any great merit, however effective it may be in buying Democratic conventions.

The month of June, 1863, was a memorable period in the history of our country. It was then that the rebels, for the second time, invaded Pennsylvania, and great anxiety was everywhere felt for the result. Our readers will remember that on a Sunday afternoon the startling intelligence reached our city, and immediately an immense meeting was convened in the Court House to consult upon the best steps to be taken to interrupt the march of the invader. A similar meeting was held at Mauch Chunk on that same day, and it is worthy of remark that it was the first apperarance of Asa Packer, Esq., at a meeting of that character, since the outbreak of the Rebellion. Up to that time he had steadfastly refused to participate in any movement having for its object subjugation of the Rebels, but now his fears were aroused, and his wildest apprehensions were excited lest his immense possessions should fall into the hands of the fell destroyer. At this juncture he arises in the meeting and proposes that all who are willing to volunteer in defence of the country, should on their return, retain their places, and that their wages should go on as though they had not been absent. Wonderful liberality--unprecedented generosity. The rebels had threatened to destroy our railroads, cities and other property, and here we have the President of a large corporation, the Lehigh Railroad Company, (the half of which is owned by Mr. Packer,) offering to the men in their emply such inducements to save their property from destruction.

His friends now claim that he was the friend of the Government in the prosecution of the war for the subjugation of the rebels. Was he not rather the friend of Asa Packer in this movement? or, in other words, did not selfishness drive him to this act of duty? Let the truth be known and we have no fear that the people can be deceived into voting for such a man as Asa Packer as the Governor of this Commonwealth.—Reading Times.

Steamboatman Drowned.

A few days ago Mr. John Murray, an old steamboatman, well known in this vicinity, but lately engaged in the lower trade, was drowned near Louisville by the capsizing of a yawl in which he and five others were seated. The party were laboring in the falls with some arrangements for getting the Mollie Ebert over. While passing by the boat they threw out a line, which was caught by some one on board. The sudden checking of the yawl by this action caused it to capsize, and the six men were plunged into the swift current. Other boats were launched in a moment and five of the party saved. Murray was near the skiff in which the other men had been taken but gave up hope, and bidding his companions good bye sunk for the last time. He was about fifty years of age and had been engaged in steamboating for about twenty years.

Captain Pink Varble was in the yawl at the time it capsized and narrowly escaped. He was rescued just as he began to sink for the third time. When taken ashore he was insensible, but the usual remedies were applied, and in a short time he was restored to consciousness.

For the Work House.

This morning the County Work House will receive its first complement of visitors from the jail, arrangements having been made for the forwarding of twenty vagrants. The number will be increased from day to day as long as the managers of the Work House can accomodate them.

Already arrangements are being made at the Mayor's office for the business. The Clerk, Mr. Patterson, has ordered the printing of the necessary forms of commitment, which will be ready in a few days, after which persons will be sent direct from the Mayor's office.

The Work House is likely to be largely patronized by a numerous class of persons who have heretofore been a source of considerable trouble to officials—the habitual drunkards. Under the law, these people, instead of being committed to jail for three or five days, can be consigned to the Work House for thirty days. Old topers, when this fact becomes known among them, will likely fight more shy of the tombs.

Singular Circumstance.

The Morgantown Post is responsible for this story: A negro barber relates that in this place a few Sabbaths ago he was shaving a man, and as he drew the razor over his face he realized that he was doing wrong in thus violating the laws of God by working on the Sabbath day, and the thought also occurred to him that the Almighty, in his displeasure, might take from him the use of his hand if he still persisted in shaving persons on Sunday. While he was thus meditating, strange as it may seem, the strength of his right hand and arm gradually departed. He has not been able to shave a man since that time, a period of three weeks, and has no use of his hand scarcely at the present writing, nor is there any prospect of its speedy recovery. Doubtless this is a judgment upon him for not "rememering the Sabbath day" and keeping it holy.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Yesterday an accident occurred at the Fort Pitt Foundry, Ninth ward, by which an employe, Robert Hadfield, met with terrible injuries, which, in all probability will result in death. It seems, in company with others, he was engaged in molding or casting rollers. In doing this, the mold, about six feet long, is placed in a vertical position, with one end resting on the ground. The molten iron is then conveyed in a ladle from the furnace and elevated to the desired height, when it is poured into the mould from the top. Hadfield was standing by the mold when the ladle containing three thousand pounds of the molten mass was being elevated. It had been raised to the top of the mold and was about being poured in, when by some accident one of the hooks supporting Hadfield the ladle slipped and allowed it to tip over to one side. Being filled to the brim, the liquid fire at once poured out in a stream about six inches wide. Falling upon the head of Hadfield, and separating it ran down each side. In an instant his head was bereft of every vestige of hair and his clothing literally burned from his body, while his flesh, crisped and crackled, under the stream. He was taken out immediately and conveyed to his residence on Lacock street, Allegheny, where Dr. Hamilton attended to his injuries. Although so terribly burned he retained consciousness and was enabled, after the accident, to converse briefly with his friends. He suffered intense pain, notwithstanding all the remedies which could be applied for his relief. He is now lying at his residence in a very critical condition, and no hopes are entertained for his recovery. He has a wife and family of four children.

The remarkable cure of Miss Fisher, of Beaver county, is one worthy of more than a passing notice, especially when so many persons are suffering not only with diseases of the eyes, and partial or total blindness, but likewise with other chronic ailments which Dr Keyser has treated with such astounding success.

The lady concerned was doomed to perpetual blindness, which through Dr. Keyser's skill was completely removed, the truth of which has been vouched for by a sufficient number of witnesses to establish the fact beyond all cavil. The subjoined letter from the young lady's brother speaks for itself:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that I have to the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mo her sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

S. P. FISHER,
North Sewickley.

THE CONDITIONS OF HEALTH.

It is idle to expect health if the precautions necessary to secure it are neglected. The human organization is a delicate piece of mechanism, and requires as much intelligent care and watchfulness to keep it in order, as are requisite in the management of the most complicated combination of levers, wheels and pinions.

At this season of the year the body is peculiarly sensitive, because it is greatly weakened and relaxed by the continuous heat. The skin, in summer, with its millions of pores wide open, is a very different sort of tegument from the compact fibrous covering which it becomes under the action of the winter's cold. The muscles, too, are comparatively flaccid, the nerves tremulous, the blood poor, and the whole frame less capable of enduring fatigue and resisting disease. These indications of a depressed condition of the vital forces are so many unmistakable hints that nature needs reinforcing.

Ordinary stimulants will not effect this object. They inflame and excite, but do not strengthen. The only preparation which can be depended upon to impart staminal vigor to the system, and enable it to endure the ordeal of the heated term without giving way under the pressure, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a tonic and corrective so pure, so harmless, so utterly free from the drawbacks which render many of the powerful astringents employed in medical practice more dangerous than the ailments they are employed to cure, that it may be administered without fear to the feeblest female invalid, or the most delicate child. The cathartic and alterative vegetable ingredients, which are combined with those of a tonic nature in its composition, keep the bowels moderately free and perfectly regular, while the work of invigoration is going on. The finest blood depurents which the herbal kingdom affords are also among its components, so that it recruits, purifies and regulates the system simultaneously.

DISSOLUTION.

The partnership heretofore existing under the name of JOHN THOMPSON & CO. was dissolved on the 1st of July last by the withdrawal of John Thompson. The business will be carried on as usual, at the old establishment, 135 THIRD AVENUE.
JOHN THOMPSON,
ROBERT THOMPSON,
R. C. MILLER.

In retiring from the above firm I would cordially recommend my former partners to my old customers and the public generally, believing that the business will be carried on by them in an honest and upright manner, and I would desire to return my sincere thanks to my friends for the very liberal patronage I have received from them during the thirty-one years I have carried on business in Pittsburgh.
JOHN THOMPSON.

The undersigned, successors to John Thompson & Co., have formed a partnership dating from July first, under the name of THOMPSON & MILLER,
and will continue the business of HOUSE PAINTING, and dealing in PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL FOREIGN GLASS, at the old stand, 135 THIRD AVENUE.
Thankful for the favors of the past we would respectfully ask the continued patronage of our friends and the public, assuring them that we will spare no pains to render satisfaction in every case in which we may be employed.
ROBERT THOMPSON,

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.
For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.
It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto, I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 5, 1869.

The appearance of the gold market is stronger to-day, and the demand is less limited. All the gold offered at a certain limit is readily but cautiously taken up, and we may not be surprised to see a sharp advance during this month, although there is no evident cause; but the large short interest outstanding and the easy market, with an average disbursement of about twelve million dollars of currency during the present month, make it quite easy for the large holders to have their gold carried to a convenient time. From natnral causes and the movements of the Treasury department, gold should decline, and may take a rapid course downward on or about September first, when nearly five millions of gold will come on the market from National Bank deposits in Washington.

Government bonds reacted with the firmer feeling in gold and the discussion in European papers on account of the rumors in circulation concerning the taxation of bonds in the hands of foreign holders.

Stocks are dull but firm, western shares and lower and heavy for New York roads.

Money easy at 8 to 10 per cent. and little inquired for.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 136; Silver, 130; Eighty-one's, 124¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 124¾; do 1864, 123⅝; do 1865, 123⅝; do 1865, Consols, 122¾; do 1867, 122⅝; do 1868, 122¼; Ten Forties, 115¾; New York Central, 208¼; Erie, —; Reading, 97½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 53; Ohio & Mississippi, 32¼; Michigan Southern, 107⅝; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 107¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 116¼; Chicago & North Western, 87¾; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 97½; Adams Express Company, 59⅛; Merchants Union Express, 10¼; Pacific Mail, 84¼; Western Union Telegraph Company, 39; Am. (By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, August 5, 1869.

The demand for money is very moderate and the market easy, at 5@7 per cent. on call, with Governments and colaterals; prime business notes 8@10 per cent.; but the discount market was generally very dull. Foreign exchange very dull and nominal; the quotations were 9¼@10 for prime bankers' bills at sixty days, and 110⅜@110½ for sight. The steamer Eagle, for Havana, to-day took $27,000 in specie. The dullness of the gold room was relieved by an increased activity and a firmer feeling. The change was due to private telegrams from Europe reporting lower prices for bonds at London and Frankfort than those of the press. This decline in bonds was attributed to an uneasy feeling in the money centres of Europe about the Egyptian question. Gold opened at 136, fell to 135⅞, advanced to 136¼, and closed at 136¼. Carrying rates, 5@7 per cent. Clearances, $42,000,000.

Governments firm, but business quite moderate; Coupons of '81, 124¾@125; do. '62, 125@125¼; do. '64, 123⅞@124; do. '65, 123⅞@124; do. new, 122½@122⅝; do. '67, 122⅝@122¾; do. 68, 122½@122⅝; 10-40's, 116⅛@116⅜; Pacifics, 111¼@111⅜.

State bonds dull and lower; Missouris, 87¾; old Tennessees 61¾; new 54½; old Virginias 57½; new 61; old North Carolinas 57; new 50¾.

Among railroad mortgages there is a good demand for Union Pacific bonds, and they sold up to 88¾@89 to-day. Central Pacifics are quoted at 97⅛@97½.

The stock market was very dull throughout the day on Vanderbilt roads, and prices have declined. There was rather more pressure to sell these stocks, based on the report that Commodore Vanderbilt was going to visit California and no consolidation would take place until his return. There was increased activity and buovancy in western shares generally, with Northwestern, St. Paul, Rock Island and Michigan Southern as specials. Market closed steady

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Sufficient progress has been made in harvesting in this as well as other states, to place the crop beyond doubt, and it is safe to assert that the yield of all kinds of grain will be an average, and probably more than an average. The wheat crop, as a general thing, is secured all over the country, with the exception of those sections that grow spring, and it, too, will soon be housed. The advices from the west in regard to corn are more encouraging, although there is no doubt but what it has been badly injured in some localities, by the excessive rains, and that the yield will not be as heavy as it would otherwise have been. It is generally conceded that the oats crop will be the largest in many years, and already seller options this month, have been sold in Chicago at 40 cts. Rye and Barley, also, promise well, and the yield will doubtless be larger than last year.

The Chicago Journal says of the crops in the Northwest: The crop news from the Northwest continues to be favorable. The past fortnight of good weather has greatly improved the prospects. The crops, in the aggregate will be a full average, the croakers to the contrary notwithstanding. The failure of any one crop is almost entirely confined to lowland localities.

Our general markets are quiet and dull, and devoid of anything really new or important. Flour is firm, and, strange as it may seem, choice spring wheat brands are now worth considerably more than winter wheat flours; three months ago, the latter was worth 25 to 50 cts. per bbl. more than the former. The effect of this will be to drive spring wheat flours out of this market, as nobody, with the exception of a few bakers, will pay the difference and there will be more winter wheat flour sold here than has been for several years. It is not likely, however, that the present prices of spring wheat will be sustained for any considerable length of time. Sugars are more active and firmer, and refineds are a fraction higher. Provisions firm and in fair demand.

APPLES—In steady demand, and we can report regular sales at $3@4,50 per bbl.

BERRIES—Sales of western Blackberries at $2,50@3 per bushel, and state at $3,50@4. Huckelberries at $5 per bush.

BUTTER—Is in steady demand, with sales at 20@25 for fair to choice.

BEANS—Sales at $1,75@2.

BROOMS—Quoted as follows: No. 5 $6,50; No. 4 $6; No. 3 $5, No. 2, plain, $4,50, and market firm.

CHEESE—In good supply and dull, but unchanged.

CEMENT—Johnstown Hydraulic Cement is quoted at $2,25 per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Dull, as is usual at this season of the year, and prices are nominally unchanged.

DRIED FRUIT—Is very dull, and likely to continue so until towards winter, as there are many other kinds of fruits offering.

EGGS—Dull; sales at 17@18.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Firm with only a moderate local demand, and while winter wheat brands are unchanged, spring wheat flours are higher. We now quote choice Minnesota springs at $7,50@7,75, and Winter Wheat at $7,00@7,50—some very good brands of the latter offering to the trade at $7. The mills are reported as doing a good business, but their margins are very small, as wheat is relatively higher than flour.

GRAIN—Wheat is scarce but the demand is only fair, and prices are, if anything, a little weak. Oats dull and unsettled; within the past two or three days holders generally have been anxious to realize, but it is thought by some dealers, that old stock will be in better demand within the next week or two and prices will react. At present old crop may be quoted at 67@68 on track, and 69@70 in store. Corn is very quiet and in limited supply; we continue to quote at $1,00@1,05 for mixed to prime yellow. Rye is nominal at $1,25.

HEMP—Very dull, $205.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LIME—White Lime is quoted at $1,50, and Cleveland at $2,50, per bbl.

LARD OIL—F. Sellers & Co. quote Extra No. 1, at 1,44, and No. 2, at $1,05.

POULTRY—Sales of spring chickens, at 65@70 per pair.

PROVISIONS—Firm with a good jobbing demand. Shoulders, 15½@15¾; Ribbed Sides, 18½, Clear do 19½; Sugar Cured Hams, 23½@24 and Breakfast Bacon, 22½. Lard, 20 in tierces, and 21 in buckets. Dried Beef 22½. Mess Pork, $33½.

POTATOES—Less active and we now quote at $1,50@1,75 per bbl.

PEACHES—Dull and lower with a supply in excess of the demand; we now quote at $1.50 to $1,75@2 per bushel.

PEANUTS—Higher, at 12½.

SALT—Allegheny River brands are quoted by the car load, 1, at $1,75@80.

TALLOW—Rendered quoted at 10½.

TOMATOES—$1,75@2 per bushel.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, August 5.—Cotton goods remain inactive and firm, but a good inquiry is noticeable for low priced hosiery. Germantown woolen shawls and and heavy woolens adapted to mens' wear, plain and colored alpacas, poplins, armures and dress goods of this class are also in good request at the opening rates of last year.

TOLEDO, August 5.—Flour quiet. Wheat a shade better; extra amber $1,45; old do $1,48; No. 1 red $1,47; spot $1.45, seller August; No. 2 red $1,42; white Wabash $1.50; white Michigan $1,50; No. 3 spring $1,10. Corn 2 better; No. 1, 98; No. 2, 95, seller August; rejected 85. Oats quiet: old No. 1, 70; new do 55, seller August. Rye dull: No. 2 new 90. Receipts, 17,000 bbls flour, 65,000 bushels wheat, 13,500 bush corn, 14,000 bush rye. Shipments 2,300 bbls flour, 36,400 bush wheat, 18,700 bush corn, 2,600 bush oats

The Pittsburgh Gazette

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

FAMOUS LONDON MERCHANTS. A Book for Boys. By H. R. Fox Bourne, Author of "English Merchants," etc. With twenty five Illustrations. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Books of this character impart to young people something tangible and worthy of imitation. However moral and high toned a romance may be, after all it is a story of the imagination. But the history of these famous merchants teach the great cardinal principle that any one who uses proper diligence may achieve greatness and rise to a high level in society. This little volume contains an account of thirteen noted men, commencing with Whittington and ending with Peabody. The history of Rothschild and Gurney are fraught with interest. It is a valuable, suggestive work for youths, and contains lesscns as substantial as instructive. On sale by Miner.

CREDO. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. For sale by J. L. Read & Son. Fourth avenue, Pittsburgh.

There is something after all in a name. The title of this book is quaint and significant. Our readers will not expect us to pronounce the work perfect, and yet its defects are few and more likely to be viewed just as persons are theologically trained. There is a dash and independent ring in the author's style, also so thoroughly evangelical in its tone, that it will command thoughtful consideration. "Credo" is a collection of semi essays and semi-sermons, arranged in chapters. It is divided into four divisions: "The Supernatural Book," "Supernatural Beings," "Supernatural Life," "Supernatural Destiny." Each division treats of various topics. The book closes with a chapter entitled, "The Sceptic Among the Disciples." It deals with questions of vital importance, and such as are agitating the Christian world at this time, and it will serve a good purpose to enlighten those of the doubting type that are found in the Churches, and those that are seeking light will receive aid and instruction how to find Christ. We most heartily commend it.

COUNTESS GISELA. From the German of E. Marlitt. Author of "The Old Mam'selle's Secret," etc. By Mrs. A. L. Wister. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

The favorable reception of the previous works of the author is a guarantee that "Countess Gisela" is worth reading. It is a story that arouses the interest of the reader from the outset. The author presents characters of a German type that are life-like and but seldom delineated. This new and fresh field of literary merit is becoming quite popular with the readers of fiction.

MORNING BY MORNING; or Daily Readings for the Family or the Closet. By Rev. C. H. Spurgeon. Published by Sheldon & Co. New York.

Not long since we commended "Evening by Evening," a twin volume, for its excellencies and usefulness in the family circle and for closet meditations. Both these works are arranged on the same plan, and both are admirably adapted for the object in view by the author. The simple reading of the appropriate lesson for the morning of each day would prove an excellent preparatory means for family worship, and also suggestive for closet duties. The large-hearted and Catholic spirit of the distinguished author will go far towards commending both volumes to believers of evangelical churches generally. Each page contains suitable reflections, with a suggestive passage at the top, for every day in the year. Quite a fine selection of hymns are to be found at the close of the Readings. The flowing style, and gorgeous imagery of the author, mark each lesson.

CORD AND CREESE. By the author of the "Dodge Club." Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

To say this is a thrilling story, would hardly express its real character. It is a surprising creation of the author, bordering on the wonderful, and yet so plausible, that the reader is on the qui vive until the end is reached—breathless for something else.

AN AMERICAN WOMAN IN EUROPE. The journal of Two Years and a half sojourn in Germany, Switzerland, France and Italy. By Mrs. S R. Urbine. Published by Lee and Shepard, Boston. For sale by J. L. Read & Son, Fourth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

Observations of European matters in book form appear so frequently, that some people denounce them without even taking the trouble to read them. Every work of this character ought to contain something new and entertaining. The chief excellences of this volume is its description of people and things from a stand-point that many tourists overlook. Careful observers of people en masse, instead of the better class, and higher walks of society, will find much to entertain and instruct. We are quite willing to overlook the lack of highly-colored word painting, for the matter-of-fact style of the book. Women, too, see things quite differently from men, and this fact is to be plainly seen in this record of two years and a half.

MARRIED AGAINST REASON. By Mrs. Adelheid Sheldon Mackenzie. Published by Loring, Boston.

This pretty little story, by the wife of Dr. Shelton Mackenzie, is German throughout in web and woof. Its simple, graceful style will attract and interest the reader. This lady commences well, and gives promise of some eminence in the field of fiction.

THE HOLLANDS. By Virginia F. Townsend. Published by Loring, Boston.

The fair author enjoys a fine reputation for her pure and healthy style of writing. Few writers have a better name. When the "Hollands" was appearing in a serial form in the Home Magazine, it received much praise and elicited marked attention by thousands. Its popularity called forth many letters of praise. The central character, "Jessamine," is a vivid piece of delineation, and is so life-like, that it charms the reader.

PHILIP BRANTLEY'S LIFE WORK, and How He Found It. By M. E. M. Published by M. W. Dodd; No. 506 Broadway, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

In this excellent work we have portrayed in the form of a journal the struggles of a young man, to secure a preparation for the ministry, which he finally attained, notwithstanding the difficulties he passed through. To accomplish such a grand work, resulting in a glorious life usefulness, is well worth all the cost. In this history, too, lessons are inculcated worthy of imitation by all young men on entering upon the duties of life, It is a capital book for the family circle, and for Sunday school libraries.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, July, 1869. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co, Boston.

The principal papers of this sterling quarterly are equal to the standard of excellence usually found in each number. This publication, venerable with age, is an honor to the literature of the day, and will compare favorably with similar publications in Europe. Papers like the following indicate the character of the number: "Hereditary Insanity," "Open Air Grape Culture;" "The Laws of History," "Volcanoes." It is worthy of a wide circulation.

THE AMERICAN LAW REVIEW. July, 1869. Published by Little, Brown & Co., Boston. For sale by Kay & Co., Pittsburgh.

We have commended this quarterly not only for its able papers for professional men, but for general reading. It is a valuable publication and always contains articles of decided merit. The following articles will give an idea of the number: "The Limits of Exclusive Jurisdiction of Admiralty in the United States," "Bank Cashers," "James Otis," etc.

A HAND BOOK OF MAP DRAWING. Published by E. H. Butler & Co., Philadelphia.

The object of this capital little work is designed to fix more indelibly in the memory of the pupil, through the sense of sight, the facts embodied in Geography. It is especially adapted to the maps in Mitchell's new series of School Geographies. Outline rules, full and complete, illustrates its use. D. W. Proctor, agent for the house, may be found at J. R. Weldin & Co., Wood street.

MARRIED. Published by Turner Brothers & Co. Philadelphia.

This is represented as a fascinating story, and one of the latest works of Mrs. C. J. Newby, author of several popular romances. For sale by Gildenfenny.

Nasby on Packer.

Nasby has been speaking in behalf of Packer. He seems to have taken "Brick" Pomeroy's Democrat as a guide. Here is what he says of his experience:

I felt good ez I struck that sakrid soil. Here, thot I to myself, is a State uv laborers. Here is State into wich I shel only meet the brawny-armed and horny-handad sons uv toil. Here, for wunst, my path is clear.

I opened out at my first meetin furiously agin bonds, agin monopolies, agin bloated bondholders, agin the aristocratic men uv wealth, wich, by ackumilatin bonds, hev managed to get into their kands enuff to subsist onto, thus wringin gorjus luxuries out uv the sweat uv the labrin men, and then rememberin my last Ohio eggsperience, had just commenced to branch out eulogistic uv the noble men who opposed copperheadism doorin the war, when the most unearthly yell that ever wuz heerd assailed me—

"Who brot you here to abooze our candidate for Governor?" shouted the infooriated mob, and stones and sticks began to fly like hail about me. I stood this till two enthusiastic admirers of Packer rushed to a grocery handy by, and returned in a minit with a baskit of eggs. Them I never cood stand, and, demoralized and bewildered, I left Pennsylvany.

LAND DRAINAGE has been attended with remarkable success in California. An island, known as Sherman's Island, lying at the head of Suisin Bay, between the San Joaquin and Sacramento rivers, twelve miles long and three miles wide, and containing an area of 14,000 acres, which was subject to overflow by all high tides and to great devastation by occasional floods, has been reclaimed and put in cultivation with the most gratifying results. It required an embankment forty-five miles in circuit and five feet high to enclose the island, and thirty self-acting water gates were needed to discharge the drainage of the land. The cost of the works, including dams and levees, was $80,000. Last year 4376 acres were sold at an average price of $12,69 the acre, the greater part of which was thrown upon the market in order to pay off taxes arising from the cost of reclamation. The soil upon this island is remarkably fertile, and upon one plantation three successive crops of wheat, of sixty-nine, fifty-two and fifty bushels to the acre have been produced.

ON a high hill in York, called Agamenticus, lies buried the Indian apostle, St. Aspinquid. He was ninety-four years old when he died, May 1, 1862, At the age of forty-two or forty-three he was converted to Christianity, and spent fifty years of his life in preaching to the sixty-six diffierent nations or tribes of Indians in the country. His funeral was conducted with great pomp and ceremony. The Indians sacrificed the following wild animals to the departed spirit; 25 bucks, 67 does, 3 ermines, 32 buffaloes, 110 ferrets, 832 martens, 240 wolves, 82 wild cats, 482 foxes, 620 beavers, 500 fishes, 99 bears, 36 moose, 20 weasels, 400 otters, 520 raccoons, 112 rattlesnakes, 3 catamounts, 990 musquashes, 69 woodchucks, 1,500 minks, 58 porquepines. On his tombstone was placed the following inscription:

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. mv19:151-d&F

The Second story of Wilkins Hall has been secured as an armory for the Duquesne Greys.

Yesterday morning Mayor Brush committed thirteen vagrants and drunks to jail. Business is looking up.

Gas Lamps have been erected in the Allegheny Park, along the main walks, and are lighted every evening.

Mayor Drum had two drunks and one vagrant before him, yesterday morning, which he disposed of in the usual way—sending to jail.

Yesterday the Adjutant General of the State forwarded fifty commissions for officers of Pennsylvania militia in various sections of the Commonwealth.

A libel was also filed against eighteen barrels of whisky and other property owned by Daniel Mingis, of Muncy Dun, Lycoming county, for alleged violations of the revenue laws.

Patent Microscope.—James H. Logan Esq. of Allegheny city, has just secured letters patent on a microscope which is said to rival the very best now in use and yet is so simple as to be within the reach of all, costing a mere trifle. We congratulate our friend on the success of his invention.

"The Daily Times" is the title of a new venture in journalism, which has just made its appearance in Allegheny. The little sheet, according to the publishers' announcement, will be issued just as long as they are contented with the amusement, and they promise no continuance.

Abusive Language.—Ellen Lammon entered the residence of Catharine Kneeland, yesterday, and considerably disturbed the equanimity of that lady by vile and abusive language, for which Alderman McMaster arrested and committed her to jail for trial on an informa- for surety of the peace.

Gave Bail.—A hearing was had before Mayor Brush, yesterday morning, in the case of John Henry, charged with forgering Gen- Rowley's name to a check, which resulted in the accused being required to give bail for trial. He gave the required security, and was released.

New Music.—Messrs. Barr, Knake & Buettler, the will known music dealers publishers, No. 12 Sixth street, late St. Clair, have sent us a copy of a new song by our talented fellow-citizen, F. J. Bushman, entitled "Do you ever think of me." It is a beautiful gem, neatly printed and of such order as to secure for it wide sale.

College Elections.—The Board of Trustees, of Washington and Jefferson College, held a meeting Wednesday evening and elected the Rev. Dr. Bittinger, of Sewickley, President of the College. Another meeting was held yesterday morning, when Gen. Geo W. Cook, of Steubenville, Wm. Lyons, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and D. S. Wilson, Esq., of Washington, were elected Trustees.

New Crossings.—New twelve feet wide flagstone crossings are being put down on Sandusky, Federal and Beaver streets, Allegheny, opposite the main avenues of the Park. The large and increasing travel over the avenues and across the streets at these points rendered some such an arrangement necessary. Promenaders will be pleased with the improvement.

Runaway Accident.—Yesterday afternoon a horse attached to a light buggy ran away on Second avenue. It had been left standing unhitched at the corner of the avenue, and becoming frightened, was away before the owner could secure it. At the corner of Grant street, the horse knocked down and dragged the vehicle over a gentleman who was crossing the street. He was very seriously injured and had to be carried home.

An Overdose of Morphine.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Mary Bell, wife of Mr. T. M. Bell, residing at 296 Lacock street, Fourth ward, Allegheny, died suddenly at her residence, and Coroner Clawson was notified to hold an inquest. It seems Mrs. Bell had taken a quantity of morphine on Wednesday evening as a medicine and in mistake made the dose too large, which produced death subsequently. The jury returned a verdict accordingly.

Disorderly House.—Michael Smith was before Alderman Baillie yesterday, charged with selling liquor on Sunday and maintaining a disorderly house in the Eighth ward, Allegheny. The information against Michael was made by an old resident in the vicinity who alleges that the establishment presided over by Michael has become a public nuisance, and an annoyance to the entire neighborhood. He was held for a hearing this morning.

Annual Reunion.—A meeting of the old members of the Seventy-seventh Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers was held at the banking house of Robinson Bros., Fourth avenue, Wednesday evening, at which a Committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual reunion of the members of the regiment. The affair will be held on the second Thursday of September. A grand banquet is talked of as the feauture of the occasion.

Sleep Walking.—Wednesday evening, Mrs. Jane Darragh, a resident of Bridgewater, near New Brighton, arose in her sleep and walked out of a second story window of her residence. She fell with great violence upon the ground, and suffered very severe injuries. One of her legs and an arm were broken, and her collar bone dislocated. It is also feared she has been injured internally. She is receiving medical attention, but is in a very critical condition.

Mysterious.—Yesterday afternoon officer Mulvaney, while making his rounds, picked up a valise almost new on the lot between Penn and Liberty streets, at the railroad crossing. The valise had been broken open and everything of value (if it had contained anything of value) taken out. Close by a pair of pants and a vest were also discovered. The articles are at the Mayor's office and can be had by the owner upon an explanation of the circumstance.

Almost a Fire.—Wednesday evening a lady residing on Pump alley, Allegheny, accidentally dropped a carbon oil lamp upon the floor. The lamp broke, and the oil scattering in all directions took fire, which so frightened her that she ran into the street and raised an alarm of fire. The box at the Friendship Engine House was also struck, which brought out the engines, but their services was not required. The fire was extinguished in a few minutes by the neighbors.

The Boat Race.—It seems after all that the boat race will come off on the course as originally selected, according to the articles of agreement. The efforts to have it changed to the Logan's eddy course have been unsuccessful, and the speculators are defeated in their nicely laid plans. "The best laid plans o' mice and men aft gang aglee." It seems the principals neither favored the change at any time, and the movement was wholly an outside one.

Wife Whipping.—Peter Eashman resides in the Third ward, Allegheny. He was at leisure yesterday, and having no particular business to do, undertook to pass the hours pleasantly by correcting his wife Mary. Mary could see no good reason for allowing Peter to amuse himself in this manner, and failing to convince him of the impropriety of his course, she appealed to Alderman Bolster. The official settled Peter by arresting and requiring him to give bail to keep the peace hereafter toward Mary.

What it Cost Him.—Wm. Moore was before Mayor Brush, yesterday morning, charged with resisting and abusing an officer. The officer had attempted to arrest William who was drunk and disorderly on Penn street. William didn't want to be arrested and endeavored to escape by fighting the officer. He was compelled to go, however, and when sobered was brought before His Honor. The little episode cost William $25. Rowdies and roughs will learn, after while, that it don't pay to abuse an officer.

Taken Home.—Yesterday an officer arrived from Altoona, having in charge Beales and Duke, the incendiaries, sentenced to the Western Penitentiary, Beales for ten years and Duke for five years and six months. The prisoners were accommodated with lodgings in the institution. Beale was convicted on a charge of setting fire to the lumber yard of D. & C. Moore, and also convicted of setting fire, in connection with Duke, to the stable of Mr, D. Lowther. They were tried in the Criminal Court of Blair county last week, but the fire occurred several months ago.

Dangerous Amusements.—The boys of Hatfield and the upper part of Lawrenceville, for a number of days past, have amused themselves by "stone fights," much to the inconvenience and annoyance of persons passing in the vicinity. Several persons have already been injured by flying missiles, but the boys, notwithstanding every expostulation, continue the practice. Yesterday several of them were brought before the Mayor, who imposed upon each a fine, and reprimanded them for their reprehensible conduct. If again arrested the punishment will be much more severe.

Pushed Off a Car.—Conrad Roberns appeared before Alderman Thomas, yesterday, and made information for aggravated assault and battery against Edward Osborn. Osborn is a conductor on the Citizens Passenger Railway. Roberns alleges he was returning from a pic-nic at Iron City Park, on Monday, and was riding on the car when Osborn, without cause, quarreled with and pushed him off the car. He fell across the track and was so seriously injured as to be compelled to keep his bed for two days. The accused was arrested and committed for trial.

Threatened to Whip Her.—Harriet Johnston has been acting improperly, if the statement of Mrs. Georgiania Broughton can be relied upon. Mrs. Broughton alleges that Harriet entered her house and conducted herself in a very rude and noisy manner, and finally threatened to whip her. Mrs. Broughton didn't feel particularly anxious to be chastised, and to prevent the carrying out of the threat, she pre suaded Alderman Mullen, yesterday, to issue a warrant for Harriet's arrest. The parties reside in the Fourth ward, Allegheny.

Fires of the Month.

From the monthly report of Fire Marshall Murphy we learn that there were but six fires and fifteen alarms (none false) in the county during the month of July, 1869. Gross loss of property, $27,487; insurance paid, $9,591; not insured, $17,906. The largest fire during the month was the saw and planing mill of S. P. & J. N. Large, at Elizabeth, on Sunday, July 11th, at which property to the amount of $22,400 was destroyed; partly insured.

A Wanderer.

Yesterday afternoon one of the Mayor's police brought to the lock-up a woman about forty five years of age, who gave her name as Mrs. Frank Anderson. She said Cincinnati was her home, which she had left ten days ago. She had no friends or acquaintances in this city, and could not explain the object of her visit here. Upon further conversation it became evident that the woman was demented, and she was accordingly locked up for future disposition. It is probable she will be sent back to Cincinnati.

Malicious Boy.

Thomas Ferry was before Mayor Brush yesterday, for malicious conduct. The boy was employed as a "paster and folder" in the Dispatch office, and every evening was furnished with wrappers in which it was his duty to enclose the papers to be sent away. Instead of doing this, however it seems he has been accustomed to shirk his labor by tearing up the wrappers, and throwing them away. It was several days before the fact became known, which only came to light through the complants of subscribers at not receiving their papers. The boy was locked up for several hours, and then dismissed with a severe reprimand from the Mayor.

The False Pretense Case.

A hearing was waived before Alderman Neeper in the false pretense case mentioned yesterday, in which Mr. Wm. Holmes, of Holmes, Lafferty & Co., appeared as prosecutor and John Beardsley as defendant. The firm of which the prosecutor is a member is engaged in the commission and brokerage business in connection with live stock. It is alleged that Beardsley purchased of them one hundred and ten head of cattle, sold by them on commission, for which he gave his draft on New York for nine thousand five hundred dollars. Messrs. Holmes & Co. paid the owners of the cattle for their stock, and expected to realize the money again from the draft, which, however, when due was protested. In support of the false pretence, it is alleged that Beardsley represented he had the money to meet the draft in the hands of a certain party in New York, which proved to be untrue. It is said when the draft was presented he acknowledged he had not the money, that he had paid what he had realized from the cattle to his uncle and sister.

Beardsley waived a hearing yesterday, and in default of bail in the sum of $15,000 was committed to jail for trial at the next term of Court.

It is said a capias will be issued to secure possession of the money.

THE GREAT ECLIPSE.

Its Extent and Scientific Value—Phenomena to be Witnessed—What the Astronomers Hope to Do—The Eclipse at Pittsburgh.

An eclipse of the sun will occur tomorrow, which will be visible to all parts of the United States, unless where the sky may be clouded, and will be total to a large extent of territory, the total phase extending over a belt of about one hundred and fifty-six miles in breadth, and stretching very nearly half way around the globe, or about 12,100 miles. The area of the belt of total eclipse will, therefore, be in the neighborhood of 2,000,000 square miles.

So important an eclipse is very rare. There has been no total eclipse visible in the United States since the year 1834, and none will be visible during the present century after this year. The event will, therefore, be witnessed with great interest by astronomers, and extensive preparations are made for observing it under the most favorable circumstances. Most of our professional astronomers will take position at different points along the path of the umbra (the total elipse), and many thousands of amateurs will witness the interesting phenomena with more or less of intelligence, but with an absorbing interest in every case.

PHENOMENA OF ECLIPSES.

The strangeness of the appearance of things on the earth's surface during the eclipse will vary widely with the place of observation. In places where the atmosphere is overcast there will be no perceptible difference, except an undefinable rawness, or chilliness, in the air, and nothing to note the time whon the sun is shut out from the sight of more privileged mortals. Where clouds obscure the vision they are generally rain clouds, and the rain is usually of a drizzly character; it seldom falls in large drops. In places where the sky is clear, the air may be expected to cool off somewhat previous to the observed time of contact, and the animals show their premonition of the unusual event by various strange motions. During the totality of the eclipse fowls have been observed to go to roost, and birds of the air to fall to the earth as if struck by a stone, doubtless from fright at the sudden change; while beasts have become perfectly panic stricken, and manifested the most abject terror.

In places where the eclipse is total (and visible) the sky will grow gradually dark, and surrounding objects become invested with a weird black or copper color, and the moon's edge will be marked by a pale circlet, which was formerly thought to be due to the passage of the solar rays through her atmosphere, but is now known to belong to the solar body. The latter is called the "corona" or crown, from its resemblance to the halo often represented in pictures around the heads of saints.

HOPES OF THE ASTRONOMERS.

Astronomers will look with much anxiety for other worlds, as yet unseen by mortal vision. It was announced some ten years ago that certain observed changes in the position of the orbit of Mercury were probably due to the attraction of a number of smaller bodies revolving in an orbit between him and the sun. The causes which prevent Mercury from being seen operate still more disadvantageously in regard to these interior planets (if such these be) and there is no hope of gazing upon them other than with the eye of faith, except at the time of a total eclipse. The light of the sun being then cut off by the interposition of the moon's body, it is quite possible that the existence of these now-hypothetical worlds will be revealed through the telescope. It is thought probable that there are about four of these bodies, but their number may be "legion."

This really is the point of greatest interest; and if the number of these bodies be but small, some of them will probably be visible to the naked eye during the time of total eclipse, while those who possess a telescope of moderate magnifying power will do well to look out for them, and note as accurately as possible the position with respect to the sun and fixed stars.

The search for new planets will be a new branch of investigation during a solar eclipse; but their is also a problem, partially solved, to which many astronomers will bend all their energies. The light of the sun has been subjected to chemical scrutiny and compared with the light produced by the burning of a number of substances with which we are familiar, as entering into a composition of the earth's crust. The experimenters have already seen enough to warrant the conclusion that many of the so-called "chemical elements" exist in the sun's atmosphere, and hence consider it probable that the earth, sun, moon, and all the planetary bodies and comets comprising what is known as the solar system, have been formed out of the same elements. But it is a very difficult matter to deal with the full volume of solar light in making these experiments, and astronomers, therefore, wait anxiously for the opportunity of examining it in small portions. It is not too much to expect that the question of the solar constitution will be definitely settled by means of the observations made on the coming eclipse.

WHERE TOTAL IN THIS COUNTRY.

The eclipse will be total to a section of country embracing 10,000 square miles, between the western line of Minnesota and Iowa, and the northern boundary of the United States. About one-third part of this obscured area lies in the Territory of Montana. The remainder lies principally in Dokata, the limits taking in but a very small portion of Kansas on the north-eastern corner of that State. The Pacific Railroad lies south of the band of totality, but the belt crosses the two Pacific lines which span the State of Iowa.

THE ECLIPSE AT PITTSBURGH.

In a recent communication to the GAZETTE from Prof. Langley, of the Allegheny Observatory, the following facts were given: At 4h. 46m. 56s., P. M., on the 7th of August, the eclipse will begin, and it will terminate at 6h. 39m. and 2s.

The eclipse will be total at Louisville and Frankfort, Kentucky, which places are among the most convenient of access from this city, of those where the sun is wholly hidden.

Here rather more than eleven-twelfths of the sun's diameter will be covered, but according to past experience, no striking diminution of light need be anticipated.

Pittsburgh Inventors.

The following patents have been issued to Pittsburghers during the last week. The papers all bear the date of August 3rd:

No. 93,199—Steam engine; Andrew Hartupee, Pittsburgh.

No. 93,238—Rotary spade; Brede E. Sivertson, Pittsburgh.

No. 93,320—Flanging machine; Seth Lowen, Temperanceville, assignor to himself and O. D. Lewis.

Reissued—No. 2,584 of patent No. 76,365, date April 7, 1868, railway frog; George Westinhouse, Jr., Pittsburgh.

Its Effects.

The beneficial and healthy influences of the Work House upon old criminals is becoming apparent, and was manifested before Mayor Brush yesterday. Peter Harrington furnished the illustration. The evening previous Peter had some misunderstanding with his maternal parent, which became so animated and exciting as to attract the attention of the entire population of Church alley, in which he resides. Among the outside visitors were two of the Mayor's police, who were drawn to the scene by the unusual concourse of people at such an hour of the night, about twelve o'clock. They appreciated the situation quickly and attempted to settle the affair by affording Peter lodgings in the lock-up for a few hours until his nerves became somewhat calmer. Peter objected, the officers insisted, Peter fled the officers pursued. Finally Peter having taken refuge in a new building in course of erection on Wood street, found himself so closely besieged that surrender was his only alernative. He surrendered, and after reposing in the tombs a few hours was brought before his Honor, who heard the case patiently and then imposed a fine of twenty five dollars upon him for acting in a disorderly manner. Peter was indignant, sarcastic, severe, wouldn't pay the amount, would rest in jail, whither accordingly he was taken. A few hours reflection, together with the announcement that the Work House was to be his home for the next thirty days, convinced Peter and his friends also that the money had better be paid into the City Treasury, and it was done. Thus Peter escaped the Work House and thus the benefits of that worthy institution became apparent.

United States District Court.

In the United States District Court, Judge M'Candless, Wednesday morning, Aaron Fulmer, Center township, Columbia county, was adjudged a bankrupt upon petition of Henry Shaffer, a creditor. A rule to show cause why the petition should not be granted was issued on the fifth of July, but the debtor failed to appear in answer.

On motion of District Attorney Carnahan, judgment was entered for the United States in the case of the United States vs. Lt. Col. B. F. Haines, late of the Eleventh Pa. Vols.

In the same Court yesterday a libel was filed against the brewery of William Hartman, located at M'Keesport, a lot of lager beer et al. seized by Collector Davis for alleged violation of the revenue law. The libel was filed by District Attorney Carnahan, and upon his motion a monition was issued to the owner, and made returnable on the 21st inst.

A libel was also filed by the District Attorney against twenty barrels of distilled spirits owned by Mills, Johnson & Co. of Pittsburgh. The spirits were seized by Collector Davis on the 16th of July last for alleged violation of the revenue law. A monition was issued and made returnable on the 25th inst.

A libel was also filed against the brewery and other property of George F. Stickenger, located in Pittsburgh. It was seized by the Collector on the 27th of July, for alleged violations of the revenue law. A monition was issued upon motion of the District Attorney, and made returnable on the 21st inst.

Martin's Delinquencies.

A few days ago Martin Riddle arrived from Chicago with his wife, whom he left at the Union Depot while he started in search of work. Martin is a tailor by trade. He failed to return, and Mrs. Riddle, being without means, was compelled to rely upon the charities of the benevolent for lodgings and provisions. After diligent inquiry she ascertained that her absent lord had secured a situation at a good salary in a clothing establishment in Allegheny, but had apparently forgotten everything connected with his wife. Under the circumstances Mrs. Riddle felt constrained to call the attention of Alderman McMasters to the case, who despatched a constable to consult with Martin, and refresh his memory in regard to his family affairs.

Recovered Quickly.

Yesterday Alderman Moreland issued a warrant for the arrest of John Beachman, charged with perjury. It was alleged of John that he testified in a certain case before Alderman Koenig of his inability to converse in English. An interpreter was procured and his testimony was thus being taken when something was said which aroused his anger, and in a moment, according to the allegations, he recovered his conversational powers and expressed himself in very good English, and in language very forcible, if not elegant. Under the circumstances it was thought best to give John an opportunity to explain this sudden acquisition of language.

Three Men Injured.

Last Tuesday afternoon John Brennan, J. B. Weaver, and Henry Heiser, employes at the American Iron Works, Brownstown, were seriously injured. They were engaged in digging an excavation for the foundation of an addition to the works, when a large large slab of metal fell into the excavation upon them. They were pinned to the earth by the weight upon them, and had to be rescued by the other workmen. The men, after being taken out, were sent home in carriages and received medical attention. Their injuries are quite severe, although no serious consequences are apprehended.

Irate Frau.

Jacob Swager relates a pleasing incident illustrative of the temper and general pugilistic character of a neighbor, Brennan Frau. Jacob says he somehow was unfortunate enough to arouse the ill feeling of Frau, who was not at all backward in expressing his resentment against him, in fact went so far as to state distinctly and without the least show of hesitancy, his intention to correct Mr. Swager in a forcible and impressive manner, whenever a convenient opportunity presented itself. To prevent this Jacob, after mature deliberation, consulted Alderman Mullin, who interposed his magisterial influence in the shape of a warrant for the irate Frau's arrest.

Administrator's Sale of Dry Goods at Auction.

By order of J. W. Barker, Jr., Administrator, the entire stock of fall and winter dry goods, of the greatest variety, will be closed out at auction, at 20 Sixth (late St. Clair) street. The sales were largely attended yesterday, and many good bargains were secured. Hours of sale 9½ A. M., 2 P. M., and 7½ P. M. Sale without reserve.

Goods sold at 59 Market street at private sale as usual, and at auction prices, as the Administrator is determined to close out the stock.

City Hall Square, Allegheny.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I want to know if the Allegheny Councils have an interest in the profits of the market taverns, bordering on City Hall Square? It looks so. And many of our citizens think it strange that the Councils should permit the grounds around their City Hall to remain in such a disgraceful condition. The improvement of these grounds has been postponed from year to year, commencing with the Committee who had charge of the construction of the City Hall, they intending to do it, but handing it over to their successors. Since that time two or three efforts have been made in the same direction, but, from trivial objections as to how it should be done—all agreeing that it should be done—it was laid over and lost sight of. I hope the proper Committee, or some public spirited, energetic member of the Councils, will push the matter and get the authority from Councils to go on with the work. The delight that our citizens take in the improvement of our Commons shows how much pleasure can be given by a little adornment, grass, trees, and running water. Had these improvements been made upon the completion of the City Hall, as they should have been, to-day the shade of the trees would be grateful to many a passer-by. The improvement of this square may seem a small matter, but the comforts of life are made up of small things, and it would be well if our municipal authorities were more alive to the importance of small comforts than they are. This improvement will cost but a small amount of money; let it be done at once.

HOC. AGE.

Breezes from Soho.

Soho must be a delightfully cool place these warm days. We don't know why it should be particularly so, but certainly it must, or how could its denizens endure the exertions and excitements to which life in that locality is subjected. How for instance could Michael Murphy gather sufficient strength and nerve to choke Mrs. Rosanna Shaffer until she became black and blue, as he is said to have done, and then follow up this exhiliarating exercise by exhausting the vocabulary of the mingled Irish-English languarge in the search after vile epithets with which to describe her character, and finally wind up the exciting entertainment by threatening to remove her quickly from participation in terrestrial scenes. Certainly there must have been something in Michael's surroundings to enable him to survive this exertion, and Mrs. Shaffer must have been equally strengthened when she was enabled to survive this severe ordeal, and afterwards make her appearance at Alderman Strain's office, to acquaint that official with the transaction. Under the circumstances, it is no surprise that the magisterial curiosity was excited, and that one of his deputies was instructed to invite Michael to call upon him at his earliest convenience.

The Game Laws.

It may be an object of interest to our sporting readers, to publish briefly a synopsis of the game laws of this commonwealth.

Deer cannot be killed or taken except from the 1st of September, until the 31st of December. Grouse or Pheasants can be shot from the 1st of August, to the 20th of December. Partridges can only be killed from the 1st of October, to the 1st of January. Squirrels and Rabbits may be shot, from the 1st of August to the 1st of January. Wild Turkeys can be hunted, from the 1st of October to the 1st of January. Woodcock, from the 4th of July to the 15th of November. Insectiverous birds, which includes the robin, are prohibited to be shot at any time, and it is illegal to rob the nests of wild birds of all kinds. Trout can be fished for, with hook and line only, during the months of April, May, June and July. Sunday shooting and hunting is prohibited under a heavy penalty. Traps, blinds, snares, &c., are entirely prohibited. Possession of fish or other game out of season, is sufficient to convict the party, even if they were purchased. The penalties vary from $5 to $50. One half the fine goes to the informer, and any one convicted and refusing to pay the fine goes to jail for ten days.

Expensive Buggy Ride.

Buggy rides are rather expensive under certain circumstances. For instance if two persons of festive dispositions seat themselves in a vehicle of this character, behind a fast horse and having liberally partaken of extract of rye, in a fluid state, attempt the difficult feat of driving along a crowded thoroughfare at a Dexter like rate of speed, without injuring pedestrians. A couple of festive youths tried this yesterday afternoon, but failed lamentably. They succeeded, however, in getting themselves in the lock up, from which they were only released by the payment of a fine of ten dollars each. That entertainment was decidedly expensive.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear when it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

USE NOTHING but Lyon's Kathairon to dress the Hair. MWFF.

The Right Place.—Decidedly the best place to call for bargains in summer goods, and ladies wear, is at Moorhead's No. 81 Market street. All the articles have been marked down to the smallest possible price, and in some specialities, such as white goods, hats and bonnets, straw and gimp hats, etc., bargains of an unprecedented character are offered. Ladies, don't forget the place, No. 81 Market street.

Colored Glass.—For viewing the eclipse, can be had at Pittock's. Plenty on hand.

For fashionable hair-dressing, plain or by curling, and a frizzle, for a luxurious shave or bath, and for skillful cupping and leeching, call at Williamson's elegant saloon at No. 190 Federal street, Allegheny. F

Eighty Thousand Dollars' Worth Unsold.

As more than eighty thousand dollars' worth of stock remains still unsold, J. W. Barker, Jr., Administrator, has been authorized to continue the great closing out sale at the warerooms of J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market street, for ten days longer, before rendering his account. In order to induce purchasers, goods will be reduced still lower. Many articles will be offered at twenty five per cent, less than they can be purchased in the eastern markets at the present time. The stock, which MUST be sold, embraces desirable Fall and Winter goods, such as Merinoes, Wools, Long Shawls, Blankets, Dark and Medium Dress Goods, Cloths, Cassimeres, etc., etc. Wholesale and retail buyers should by all means embrace this opportunity of replenishing their stock, as the prices are decidedly low and the goods must be closed out.
